

Wises get look at national junior team

Jamie Wise was one of 21 hockey players from Toronto's three universities who were chosen for the Canadian Interuniversity Sport Toronto Selects team that will suit up for an exhibition game against Canada's national junior team at the MasterCard Centre in Toronto Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

The 22-year-old Stouffville resident is in his second year as a forward with the Ryerson University Rams men's team.

He is in a three-way tie for first place in the CIS scoring race with 10 goals and 17 assists in 13 games played.

Wise's father, Graham, the head coach at Ryerson, will serve as one of three coaches for the CIS Toronto Selects entry.

The 2014 IIHF World Junior Championships run from Dec. 26 to Jan. 5 in Malmo, Sweden.

Canada's first game is on Boxing Day against Germany.
