Life news.ca

If you see Margaret Fitzpatrick, anytime around Dec. 26th, don't forget to wish her a happy 90th birthday.
Yes, the always cheerful Margaret Fitzpatrick turns 90 years young on the day after Christmas!

Over her lifetime, she worked at many different occupations, including a munitions factory during the war and up to what was probably her favourite job at Bulova. When they moved to Ballantrae in the early 60s, the drive to Toronto became too much so she sadly, gave up that job and made her life in and around Ballantrae.

Marg and George gave up being "country folk" and moved into town, when the Parkway Apartments in Stouffville were new, 27 years ago. Margaret immediately began one of her fondest and most rewarding phases of her life when she started to volunteer and carried on for 15 years.

Today you will find Margaret taking advantage of all the apartment has to offer. She plays bingo, euchre, 65 and takes part in most all of the other activities she can. She walks the halls every day, more than once a day which keeps her looking much younger than her 90 years!

Through all this, over the years, Margaret Fitzpatrick and been a wonderful Aunt to several nieces and nephews who love her dearly, a Great Aunt to a bunch of great nieces and nephews who adore her and is now a super Great Great Aunt to a gaggle of great great nieces and nephews!

So, Happy Birthday Auntie M and we all pray for many more (Lake Joshua said, hope you have 20 more)

Margaret Fitzpatrick with a few of her great great nieces and nephews at Mandarin for a special early birthday dinner. Some of these children came from as far away as Canberra, Australia. And a couple came all the way from Ayr, Ontario.
