The Easter Bunny hops into town April 19. You can have your photo taken with the Easter Bunny on the hour between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the Main Street GO train station before heading out on a guided downtown hunt for candy.

More than 2,000 people participated in the annual town-run event last year, according to Anna Rose, the municipality's downtown co-ordinator.

This year's hunt also includes a stop at Latcham Gallery.

Kids will be able to pick up a take-home art activity as well as candy. All family members can also try their hand at a free art activity between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

If you prefer scaly creatures to fuzzy bunnies, the Lebovic Centre for Arts and Entertainment - Nineteen on the Park is hosting Zoo To You from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. April 19.

The mobile exotic animal exhibit might include an American alligator, African bullfrog, rose hair tarantula, yellow anaconda or red-footed tortoise, to name a few.

"As hands-on as you can be with exotic animals," said Steven Foster, cultural facility and programming co-ordinator for the downtown arts centre.

People do not have to be a part of the town's Easter Egg Hunt in order to visit Zoo

To You.

If you would like to decorate Easter sugar cookies or create an eggshell work of art, as well as go on an Easter egg hunt, you can do so at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum from 1 to 3 p.m.

Pre-registration is required. The cost is $10 for children and $5 for adults. Easter Hop-penings is recommended for children aged 3 to 10.

For more information on these events, go to www.townofws.ca

The town hall on Sandiford Drive will be closed Good Friday and Monday, April 21.

All other town facilities will be closed Good Friday, as well.

The museum and library will also be closed Easter Sunday.

GOOD FRIDAY CROSS WALK

Members of four Stouffville churches will make like Jesus on Good Friday, April 18.

They'll carry a cross from Christ Church Anglican beginning at 8:30 a.m. The procession will make stops, including one at Stouffville United Church, for Stations of the Cross readings.

The walk ends at St. James Presbyterian for a 10 a.m. worship service.

Stouffville United and St. James are hosting an Easter Sunday Sunrise Service at 7 a.m. at the Millard Street conservation area.
