

Major atom AEs win thriller

A Hollywood writer couldn't have scripted a more exciting scenario when the Stouffville major atom AE Clippers squared off against the Schomberg Red Wings in their first-to-six-point York Simcoe final series.

With momentum shifting back and forth between the clubs throughout the series, a sixth and deciding game was required.

And when the final buzzers sounded at the Clippers Sports Complex, the host Clippers emerged with a hard fought 5-4 win.

Ben Lewis propelled the Clippers' attack with a pair of goals while Owen Burrows, Charlie Berry and Matt Luff added single tallies.

Connor Sindrey collected a pair of assists and Berry one.

Clippers' head coach Ross Geiger credited the entire roster.

"We are extremely proud of our kids, they played like champions throughout the playoffs and despite significant challenges from each of the four teams they faced during the postseason, they played their best hockey when the chips were down. Their development as a team was a great experience for us all," he said.

Marc Luff and Craig Berry assisted. Other players were Ethan Pacheco, Adrian Nowaskey, David Nebitko, Mick Cavanagh, Alex Tratnik, Cal Edwards, Matthew Geiger, Michael Hume, Jesse Black, Evan Prentice and Dylan Gallagher. Scott Burrows and Todd Sindrey served as team trainers.

Minor hockey welcomes input, thanks volunteers

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association is scheduled to conduct its Annual General Meeting April 30 at the Royal Canadian Legion on Mostar Street at 6:30 p.m.

This will provide an opportunity for community members to provide feedback.

Parents, officials and volunteers are urged to attend.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the association's board of directors will host a volunteer appreciation night.
