Richard Bartley's heard he's too nice to be mayor.

"I don't know what that means," the third person to toss his name into the ring for mayor of Whitchurch-Stouffville, said.

There is also chatter as a longtime friend of Wayne Emmerson, if elected, he will essentially be Mayor Emmerson 2.0.

"I'm my own person. Wayne and I don't always agree on things," he said.

Mr. Bartley, the current Ward 5 councillor, knew eight years ago when he was first elected, he wanted to one day run for mayor.

Mr. Emmerson is vacating the seat to take a run at the regional chairperson's post.

Mr. Bartley, a married father of three girls, if elected, aims to balance spending wants with needs.

He also wishes to work more closely with the town's economic development department to
