Tot pulled from pool still critical

A 21-month-old Stouffville boy remains in hospital, in critical condition, according to the latest information provided to York Regional Police, said Const. Laura Nicolle Tuesday.

On May 19, the toddler fell into a Lost Pond Crescent back yard pool that was under construction.

The south Stouffville homeowners had a permit to construct the fiberglass in-ground pool, but at the time of the accident it was in violation of the permit because it had water in it. No charges were laid by the police or Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville bylaw officers.

Man accused of ramming victim with vehicle

A 67-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville man has been charged with assault with a weapon and dangerous operation of a motor vehicle, following an altercation.

Following a verbal set-to, the accused is alleged to have intentionally rammed his vehicle into the victim's vehicle, while he was still inside.

The victim was taken to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries, according to York Regional Police.

The accused will appear in Newmarket court June 18.
