Porter ices academic honours – again

Chris Porter joined a select group of collegiate hockey players who compete in the Atlantic Hockey Association.

The 22-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville resident and former Stouffville Spirit forward just completed his sophomore year at American International College.

He was among 25 players named to the Atlantic Hockey Association 2013-14 All-Academic team, the Springfield, Mass.-based school cited recently on their hockey club's website.

Porter earned a spot by posting a 3.0 GPA or better in all academic semesters during which the team competed.

For Porter, the honour wasn't new as he was named to the team last year as a freshman.

This past season on the ice, the former St. Brother Andre student amassed 11 goals and six assists in 36 games.

WSMHA seeks house league convenors for upcoming season

Volunteers are the backbone for any successful organization.

In keeping with that philosophy, the Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association is seeking volunteers who would like to serve as house league convenors for the upcoming campaign.
