

Lube shop OK on Main St.

A Jiffy Lube is be coming to Main Street. The site plan control application was approved by council this week. The single-storey drive-thru oil change company will set up shop at 5832 Main St., just west of the Shell gas station.

The application proposed three service bays for oil changes and vehicle maintenance services, according to the town staff report.

Mayoral candidate Arnold Neufeldt-Fast expressed his concern regarding its design and location, claiming it fits an industrial mall, not Main Street, during Tuesday's meeting.

No information was available regarding the start of construction.

Gas bar, car wash for Hwy. 48

An Ultramar convenience store, gas bar and car wash will be constructed on Hwy. 48 just north of Millard Street at Norman Jones Place.

Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville council approved the application Tuesday afternoon.

The variety store and car wash will be separate buildings and the application's renderings show two sets of gas pumps.

No information was available during Tuesday's meeting regarding construction timelines and opening date.
