Concerts aiding water work

BY SANDRA BOLAN
sbolan@yrmg.com

Proceeds from Stouffville United Music's next two concerts will be used to help a clean water project for a very remote Northern Ontario reserve.

This is the first time in SUM's nine-year history proceeds from a show have gone directly to a specific project, according to Cap Cowan, one of the concert's founders.

Concert pianist Oleg Samokhin plays this Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m. in Stouffville United Church, 34 Church St.

Samokhin currently performs with the Canadian National Ballet.

Sunday evening's program will include pieces from Chopin, Liszt, Ravel and Prokofiev.

Admission is by free-will offering.

The second show - Bach to Blues and Friends - takes place Oct. 26 at the Stouffville United.
