Whitchurch-Stouffville mayor-elect Justin Altmann (left) celebrates with supporters at Sgt. Peppers Pub and Grill in Stouffville Monday.

THIRD TIME'S CHARMING FOR NEW MAYOR

BY SANDRA BOLAN
 sbolan@yrmg.com

Justin Altmann likened his victory Monday night to giving birth — nine months of campaigning, the birth, and now he's in the parenting stage.

"It's just overwhelming right now," the mayor-elect said less than 24 hours after securing his first victory in three tries.

In 2006 he ran for councillor in Ward 2 but lost to Phil Bannon. In 2010 he went up against another incumbent — Wayne Emmerson — for the mayor's position. He lost.

This week, he beat out Bannon by 359 votes to be elected mayor of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Altmann and his supporters filled Sgt. Peppers Pub and Grill election night where they watched the poll numbers on a large screen roll in.

The bar was quiet and no one was drinking or eating as Altmann was initially down by 1,000 votes to Bannon, he said.
