Nominate heroes, good kids, volunteers for Ontario honours

Nominate an Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year today, Whitchurch-Stouffville.

The nomination period for the 2014 awards is now underway, with a nomination deadline of Nov. 30.

You can download a nomination form or use the online nomination form at www.ocna.org/juniorcitizen.

Nominate an outstanding young person, aged six to 17, who is performing worthwhile community service, contributing to their community while living with limitations, has performed an act of heroism, shown excellence in personal achievements or is a "good kid" who is making life better for others and doing more than expected of someone their age.

The program is co-ordinated by the Ontario Community Newspapers Association and supported by its 310 community newspapers - including the Stouffville Sun-Tribune.

Corporate sponsors TD Bank Group and the Insurance Bureau of Canada are committed to recognizing young people in this province.

Recipients from Whitchurch-Stouffville have included Debra Surman and musician Justin Hines.

All nominees receive a certificate of recognition and 12 final recipients and their families will be invited to Toronto in the spring of 2015 for a special awards presentations.

For more information, contact Kelly Gorven at k.gorven@ocna.org or 905-639-8720, ext. 221.
