

Voting up – but only to 45%

The Big 5-0 will not be celebrated in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

After revising the voters' list, the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville says 45 per cent of eligible voters visited a poll in the Oct. 27 municipal election.

The percentage was 44 per cent in the last election in 2010.

Whitchurch-Stouffville had the highest percentage of York Region's nine municipalities. East Gwillimbury was next at 40 per cent.

Community Links Panels from Metroland Media newspapers across the region wanted more than 50 per cent of voters to vote. They hosted pre-election events in their home communities.

Whitchurch-Stouffville's Links Panel held eight meetings for voters to hear from candidates for mayor and town council.

The revised number of electors is 29,340, town clerk Michele Kennedy said Friday. A total of 13,204 people voted.
