Emmerson packing for uncertain future

BY SANDRA BOLAN
 sbolan@yrmg.com

Wayne Emmerson is five minutes late. That is not like the out-going mayor, at all, who starts council meetings at exactly their scheduled time and wraps them up at a reasonable hour.

But he can be easily forgiven. Emmerson was returning from a luncheon with an old buddy.

Since Oct. 27, Emmerson has been fielding a lot of phone calls and having a lot of lunches with old friends and colleagues, all of whom want to chat him up about what he is doing next and trying to get this thoughts on the man taking his place — Justin Altmann.

His last day in charge of the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville is Nov. 30, but Emmerson will be out of his Sandiford Drive office, which has only a couple of boxes left in it, next week so Altmann can settle in and re-decorate. "They're going to hit the ground running," he said.

The new council's first meeting is Dec. 16
