

Minor development tyke Clippers ice Brampton tourney title

The Stouffville tyke minor development Clippers took to the ice for their first hockey tournament of the season last weekend and ran the table at the annual Bob Giroux Memorial Tournament that was culminated with a 3-1 victory over the Peterborough Petes in Brampton.

The Clippers opened the tournament with a 5-0 win over the Waterloo Wild Wolves and followed that with a 4-1 verdict over the Peterborough Petes on the first day of action.

The following day, the Clippers defeated the Guelph Jr. Gryphons 7-2 and Oakville Rangers 6-1 to gain a berth in the final.

Coached by Dean Allen, other team members included Aiden Al-Joundi, Alexander Tassopoulos, Andreas Papaioannou, Declan Maknyik, Grant Banfield, Jack Fang, Jason Shears, Julian Simone, Malcolm Byk, Mark Allan, Mason Cruzet, Nickolas Papafrangos, Oliver Coen, Owen Toffan, Talan Ware, and Will Crix.

Acton moves to press box

Stouffville's Keith Acton's job description changed this week.

The Edmonton Oilers (7-19-6) fired head coach Dallas Eakins Monday. General manager Craig MacTavish appointed Todd Nelson, who was coaching the Oilers' farm team in Oklahoma City, as interim coach.

MacTavish and Nelson were on the bench during Tuesday's 2-1 overtime loss in Phoenix. Acton, who joined the Oilers as associate coach in June 2013, moved to the press box to be the team's eye in the sky.

The Oilers play in San Jose tonight.
