SMALL SURPRISES CAN MAKE A BIG HIT

It's often the little things that make Christmas memorable, and that includes imaginative, thoughtful stocking gifts.

For Gourmet Food Lovers

A cook would love some mini kitchen gadgets nestled in a bundle of new dish cloths and towels. Unusual spices and herbs and miniature bottles of jams, jellies and honey are a definite recipe for stocking-stuffer success, also. Gourmet coffee beans of herbal teas packaged in a decorative mug are other delicious ideas.

For Kids

Young children are especially delighted by the miniature gifts that spill from their stockings. Stickers, crayons, markers, art supplies and craft items will provide hours of creative fun. Personalized combs and toothbrushes also make good stocking stuffers, as do hair combs and ribbons, ponytail holders and fancy shoelaces. Magnetized versions of favourite games that can be taken along on the next family trip are great for kids and parents. And you can introduce youngsters to good manners by including a box of small thank-you cards in their stockings.

For Teen

Teens will love to find movie passes, video gift certificates, blank cassettes, concert tickets and music cassettes in their stockings. Books of stamps and stationery are always good ideas. Other great stuffers are decorative combs or barrettes, jewelry and cosmetics.

For Travellers

Travelers will appreciate stamps and note cards to take along. Other gifts that are just the right size to slip into a Christmas stocking are travel-size cosmetics and toiletries, luggage tags, sewing kits and compasses.

For Men

He'll appreciate an extra bottle of his favourite aftershave in his stocking, kept company by high-tech razors and small bottles of shaving solutions that soften the skin. A new wallet will fill the bill nicely, as will cuff links and tie tacks or clips.

For Women

Women always love to receive scented candles and potpourri packets or sachets. Elegant, scented soaps, bubble bath, bath beads, small bottles of moisturizing lotion, loofas and pumice stones are wonderful ways to pamper her at Christmas, too.

For Just About Anyone

Almost everybody can use calendars, address books, pens and pencils, thank-you notes and stationery, stamps, paperweights and desk accessories. How about film and mini photo albums, or refrigerator magnets, small puzzles, pocket mirrors, ornaments, even gum and mints? If you're truly stumped a mall gift certificate is a good choice.

For the Sports-Minded

Golf balls, tennis balls, gold tees and fishing lures make useful gifts, as do sweatbands, gloves, socks, pedometers, stopwatches, lip balm and running-shoe repair glue.

Holiday Menu Planning Made Easy-

Christmas shopping should include a trip to Goodley's Fine Meats in Markham. A crucial partner for your holiday menu planning. John Konidis, owner, and his staff are taking special orders now for their fresh free-range turkeys and capons, honey-glazed whole or half hams (they'll even pre-slice for you), racks of lamb, boneless legs of lamb and prime rib.

And, for the rest of the holiday, Goodley's has homemade Tortieres, steak pies (baked ready for heating or bake yourself from the freezer), sausage rolls and Cranberry sausages. Stock up from the wide selection of frozen items including chicken fingers, lasagna, stew, shepherds pie and meatballs, and you'll always have something on hand. Pick up fresh eggs, milk, cream, Balderson and empire cheese, and gourmet sauces while you are shopping.

Now available, Greaves boxed Jams and Jellies, the perfect gift for teachers, daycare providers and the relative how has everything or simply to enjoy at home.
