Driving, One Drink is Too Many

The Consequences of Making That Bad Decision Are Life Long.

1. Upon arrest for impaired driving by alcohol and/or a drug your vehicle is impounded
2. Your licence is suspended for 30 days
3. Expenses for court costs
4. Personal Injury to you, your passengers, other motorists or even an innocent pedestrian
5. Possible prison sentence upon conviction and a criminal record that could have an impact on future employment or travel outside of the country
6. Loss of job, loss of income
7. Loss of car insurance
8. To obtain a list of expenses to obtain your driver's licence back following the completed suspension, please visit <http://www.mto.gov.on.ca/english/safety/impaired/part2.shtml#cost>
9. Installation of an ignition interlock system

York Regional Police are reminding the public that the R.I.D.E. program is a year-long initiative that is enhanced during the festive season.
DO NOT DRINK OR USE DRUGS AND DRIVE.

The businesses and services listed on these pages wish you a Happy Holiday Season and remind you that when it comes to drinking and driving, even one drink is too many.
