Proceeds from this event will allow us to continue to offer free-of-charge palliative care and bereavement support to residents of Markham and Whitchurch-Stouffville." Last year's Motown-themed gala raised more than $100,000 and organizers hope to top that figure in 2013.

"The annual gala is a huge undertaking for Evergreen Hospice," said Santo Natale, who is chair of the 2013 fundraiser. "We couldn't accomplish our goals without our committee of dedicated volunteers and the financial support from our sponsors. We're confident that people will love this year's theme and will have a great time when they attend."

And whether you've forgotten the disco era, or are too young to remember this late-1970s phenomenon, organizers offer a checklist of pointers. "Afros and platform shoes were in and line dances such as the Hustle and the Electric Slide were all the rage. Well-known disco artists included Gloria Gaynor, Donna Summer, The Bee Gees, KC and the Sunshine Band, Chic, The Village People and The Jacksons. Films such as Saturday Night Fever also contributed to the rise of disco's popularity."

Evergreen Hospice serves Whitchurch-Stouffville and Markham, providing support at no cost to clients. Since 1989, it has helped people of all ages who are touched by a life threatening illness or the death of a loved one, providing compassionate palliative care, helping people maintain dignity and personal choice, and helping them maintain a positive quality of life.

The bereavement support program is designed to meet the specific emotional needs of children, teens and adults as they adjust to loss and learn new living skills.
