York County Bowmen at 15887 McCowan Rd., which evolved from the Toronto Anglers & Hunters Association, has been an archery club since 1956. In 1958 the club purchased 41 acres of the York Regional Forest, adding another nine acres in 1965. During World War II, the land was used as a tank proving ground. A historical exhibit and archery demonstrations will be part of the Doors Open tour.

iSkate: There's An APP For That!

Stouffville Skating Club's 46th annual Ice Show takes place at the Stouffville Arena May 11 and 12.

The club has been around for 60 years, but the title of this year's show - iSkate: There's an App for That! - is right up to the minute and perfectly reflects our rapidly changing world. "We break it up into six segments, each representing a different app," explained Lesley Sutton, who is co-chairing the show with club president Anita Cargill.

"It's an extension from the previous show, What's on your iPod?," noted Ms Cargill. Themes cover weather, games, dance, James Bond, video and travel, and as an added bonus, talented local singer A.J. de Boer will perform a duet with one of the skaters.

With almost 200 young skaters aged from 5 to 18, the club's overall membership has grown to more than 400, which includes an increasing number of newcomers to Canada. "Enrollment is growing, especially among 5 to 8 year olds," said Ms Cargill. "We're getting a lot of people who are new to the community and who have never skated before."

Although planning starts a year in advance, "we only have three weeks of practices before the show," said Ms Sutton. "Cheryl Hockley is the director. She used to skate in the Stouffville club but she moved away and is coaching out of a different club, but she's coming back to direct the show."

Around 100 volunteers are involved in some aspect of the event, with about 10 core members at the helm. "Part of the funding comes from businesses in town and corporate sponsorships and we couldn't do it without their support," said Ms Sutton.

While the Ice Show, which takes place every two years, is a highlight of the calendar, the club offers a wide variety of programs for all ages and skill levels and is an excellent resource for everyone from beginners to seasoned skaters.

Performances of iSkate: There's an App for That! take place at Stouffville Arena May 11 at 7 p.m. and May 12 at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for seniors and children under 12. They are available in advance from the arena lobby or at the door, space permitting.
