Prayer Breakfast Welcomes Special Guest

The annual Whitchurch-Stouffville Prayer Breakfast takes place 7 a.m. May 16 at Station Creek Golf Club on Woodbine Ave.

The guest speaker is Kim Phuc, who was photographed fleeing from her village near Saigon during a napalm bomb attack on June 8, 1972, when she was nine years old. That photograph, taken by Nick Ut of the Associated Press, has since become a powerful international symbol of the pain and suffering of innocent people caught up in the horrors of war.

Today, Kim lives in Canada and raises funds for The Kim Foundation International, whose mission is to help children affected by war and restore hope and happiness to their lives. For more details visit www.kimfoundation.com. The Prayer Breakfast will also feature the music of the Springvale Boys.

Tickets are available from Candlelight and Memories on Main Street or by calling 905-642-4940. For full details visit wspayerbreakfast.com.

Sacred Music Night At St. James

The 43rd annual Sacred Music Night will be held Sunday, May 5 at 7 p.m. in St. James Presbyterian Church on Main St.

The concert will feature The Bernard Pears Chorale, The Believers Children's Choir, vocal soloists Susan (Brown) Ryman, Madeleine Eddy, Rosa Alaimo and accordionist Frank Frano. The congregational hymn will be led by Bruce Vanderbent of Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church, and will honour the memory of Robert (Bun) Sellers who, with wife Dixie, attended the concert regularly over the past 43 years.

Net proceeds from the free-will offering will go to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Student Music Scholarship Fund and refreshments will be offered following the concert.
