

Whitchurch-Stouffville Opens Doors

Doors Open Whitchurch-Stouffville takes place June 5 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The event offers a unique opportunity to explore 12 community heritage sites and discover more about the town's history. Best of all, it's a fun, free day out for whole the family.

Among this year's locations are the Richardson Masonic Lodge on Ninth Line North and Main St., which celebrates its 150th anniversary on June 19. Lionel's Farm on McCowan Rd. features a petting zoo and an amazing collection of more than 150 horse-drawn carriages, sleighs and buggies dating back to the early 19th century.

The Doctor's House at the east end of Main St. is an elegant and beautiful home which was built in the 1850s. Further west, at Main and Albert, the Sangster home is an impressive Victorian double brick house which served as a residence and doctor's office and is now owned by a yoga studio.

You can also visit Springvale Baptist Church, Second Street Studio of stained glass and the Silver Jubilee Club. The Historic Walking Tour includes a tour of lush downtown parklands, the Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club and various town facilities. Tours depart from the clock tower at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

If you want to make the most of the great outdoors, head out to Bruce's Mill Conservation Area. And if you love steam engines, visit Richmond Hill Live Steamers, which offers a fascinating collection of miniature trains dating back to the 1820s and an opportunity to ride on the miniature railway. Last but not least, take a trip to Musselman's Lake for a mouth-watering tour of Charlinda's Belgian Chocolates, which is housed in a charming cottage overlooking the lake.

Doors Open is presented by the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum. For more details on this year's event, visit www.doorsopenws.ca or call on 1-888-290-0337.

Anyone for chocolate moose? Charlinda's Belgian Chocolates at Musselman's Lake will welcome visitors during Doors Open on June 5.
