A BIRTHDAY BONANZA

Festival Celebrates Canada Day

Canada Day kicks off three full days of Strawberry Festival fun, each with its own theme.

Naturally, July 1 is all about Canada's birthday, and features a carnival and games, lawn bowling tournament, contests, blockbuster movies at 19 on the Park and the Lions Beef Barbecue, a delicious tradition which brings friends and neighbours together for a huge community gathering at the pavilion in Memorial Park. During the day, the marquee in ball diamond one will feature Farrucas Music performing Latin American fusion. The Kids Zone, also located at ball diamond one, will include massive bubble blowing, Canada Day murals, face painting and a petting zoo.

Other special events include Three Sisters' Garden, hosted by the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum and Geocaching, a treasure hunting game sponsored by the Department of Leisure Services. Souvenir hunters can visit the marquee and pick up festival souvenirs from the Strawberry Fields Forever Shoppe from 6 to 8 p.m.

Opening ceremonies begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by the marvellous music of the Blackboard Blues Band, the cutting of the giant Canada Day Cake and a fabulous display of fireworks at dusk

Last year's petting zoo in Sangster's Grove brought out huge crowds. This year the zoo will welcome visitors on Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the Strawberry Festival.

The Stouffville Lions will serve their famous and delicious roast beef barbecue at the Memorial Park pavilion as friends, neighbours and families get together to celebrate Canada Day.
