Flying the flag for Stouffville

An impressive aerial view of Stouffville's baseball diamonds taken by Brian DiCenzo of the Descenders Parachute Club during his team's descent into Memorial Park on July 1.

A member of the Descenders Parachute Club flies the flag for Stouffville en route to Diamond 1. The four-man group dropped in on the Strawberry Festival during Canada Day celebrations at Memorial Park.

Stuck In The Tower With Sue

While my days spent pounding out stories for the local paper are long behind me, the small town journalist in me still lies in wait of the perfect photo op.

Which explains why Susan and I were half way up the dark innards of the Clock Tower on Strawberry Festival Saturday when we suddenly heard the resounding clang as the metal grate covering the tower's lower attic-like opening was locked into place, trapping us inside with no way out.

I had thought it would be a great idea to try to gain access to the small upper outside landing of the fabled Stouffville landmark to take the ultimate shot of
