

MAKING LITERACY FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

HIGHER LITERACY LEVELS result in a better quality of life through reduced poverty, lower unemployment, and decreased public assistance. Additional positive impacts include improving self-confidence and parenting skills, and increasing the number of job prospects and participation in community life in general.

AVOID SUMMER SLIDE

Studies indicate that students lose one month on a grade level scale during summer holidays. Encourage your children to read their choice of books and magazines during the holidays.

- IN THE CAR: get kids to read signs or listen to talking books
- AS A FAMILY: play "fun" word games like Balderdash, Slangteasers, or Scrabble.

Do crosswords or word search puzzles together.
