What's In A
Name?

Residents of Igoma at work on the construction site of the Urafiki Health Centre in Tanzania. The health centre now serves 42,000 people, providing round the clock care and bringing hope and a brighter future to the community. It is one of the initiatives funded by the Stouffville Igoma Partnership, which will hold its annual fundraising dinner at EastRidge on Oct. 16. See page 10 for more details.
