Feeling Like A Million Dollars

Team Sparky was hounding us for a front page picture, but this is the best we could do. Hundreds of teams and individuals made the 2009 Terry Fox Run another resounding success.

Two Stouffville Lions set out to provide water and assistance to participants in the 2009 Terry Fox Run. Joe Coté is in the driver's seat; his passenger declined to reveal his identity

A young keyboardist provides musical motivation along the new route for this year's run.

Markham Fair A Fall Tradition

Markham Fair, which takes place Oct. 1 to 4 at Markham Fairgrounds, is a welcome harbinger of fall in our community.

Established in 1844 to enable local farmers to showcase their livestock and produce, the fair has remained faithful to its agricultural roots while offering entertainment and fun for the whole family. Friendly competition is a big component, with approximately 3,000 exhibitors entering more than 12,000 items to be judged and displayed during the four day event, among them giant pumpkins, hand made quilts, artwork, preserves and pies. From animal displays and live entertainment to midway rides, the fair caters to people of all ages and interests.

Markham Fair is a joint venture between the towns of Markham and Whitchurch-Stouffville and is the largest community-based volunteer organization in Canada, involving more than 670 volunteers and 70 committees and attracting more than 60,000 visitors annually. This year's president, Stouffville resident Karen Margaret Murphy, grew up on the Paisley family farm and has been involved in the fair since 1975, the year her parents entered her in the baby contest.

Highlights for 2009 include horse shows, sheep shearing, freestyle moto-cross, displays by the Toronto Police mounted unit, a 4-H tractor pull and the Stars of Pop tribute show to Hannah Montana, Miley Cyrus, The Jonas Brothers and Hilary Duff.

Markham Fairgrounds are on McCowan Rd. at Elgin Mills (18th Ave.) and there is plenty of free parking available. You can also take advantage of the shuttle bus service which will pick up passengers in Stouffville and drop them off at the fairgrounds throughout the weekend.

Visit markhamfair.ca for complete details on events and bus schedules or call the fair office at 905-642-3247.

The Toronto Mounted Police Unit will be featured at Markham Fair, which runs Oct. 1 to 4 at the Markham Fairgrounds
