

Markham Fair A Family Fall Tradition

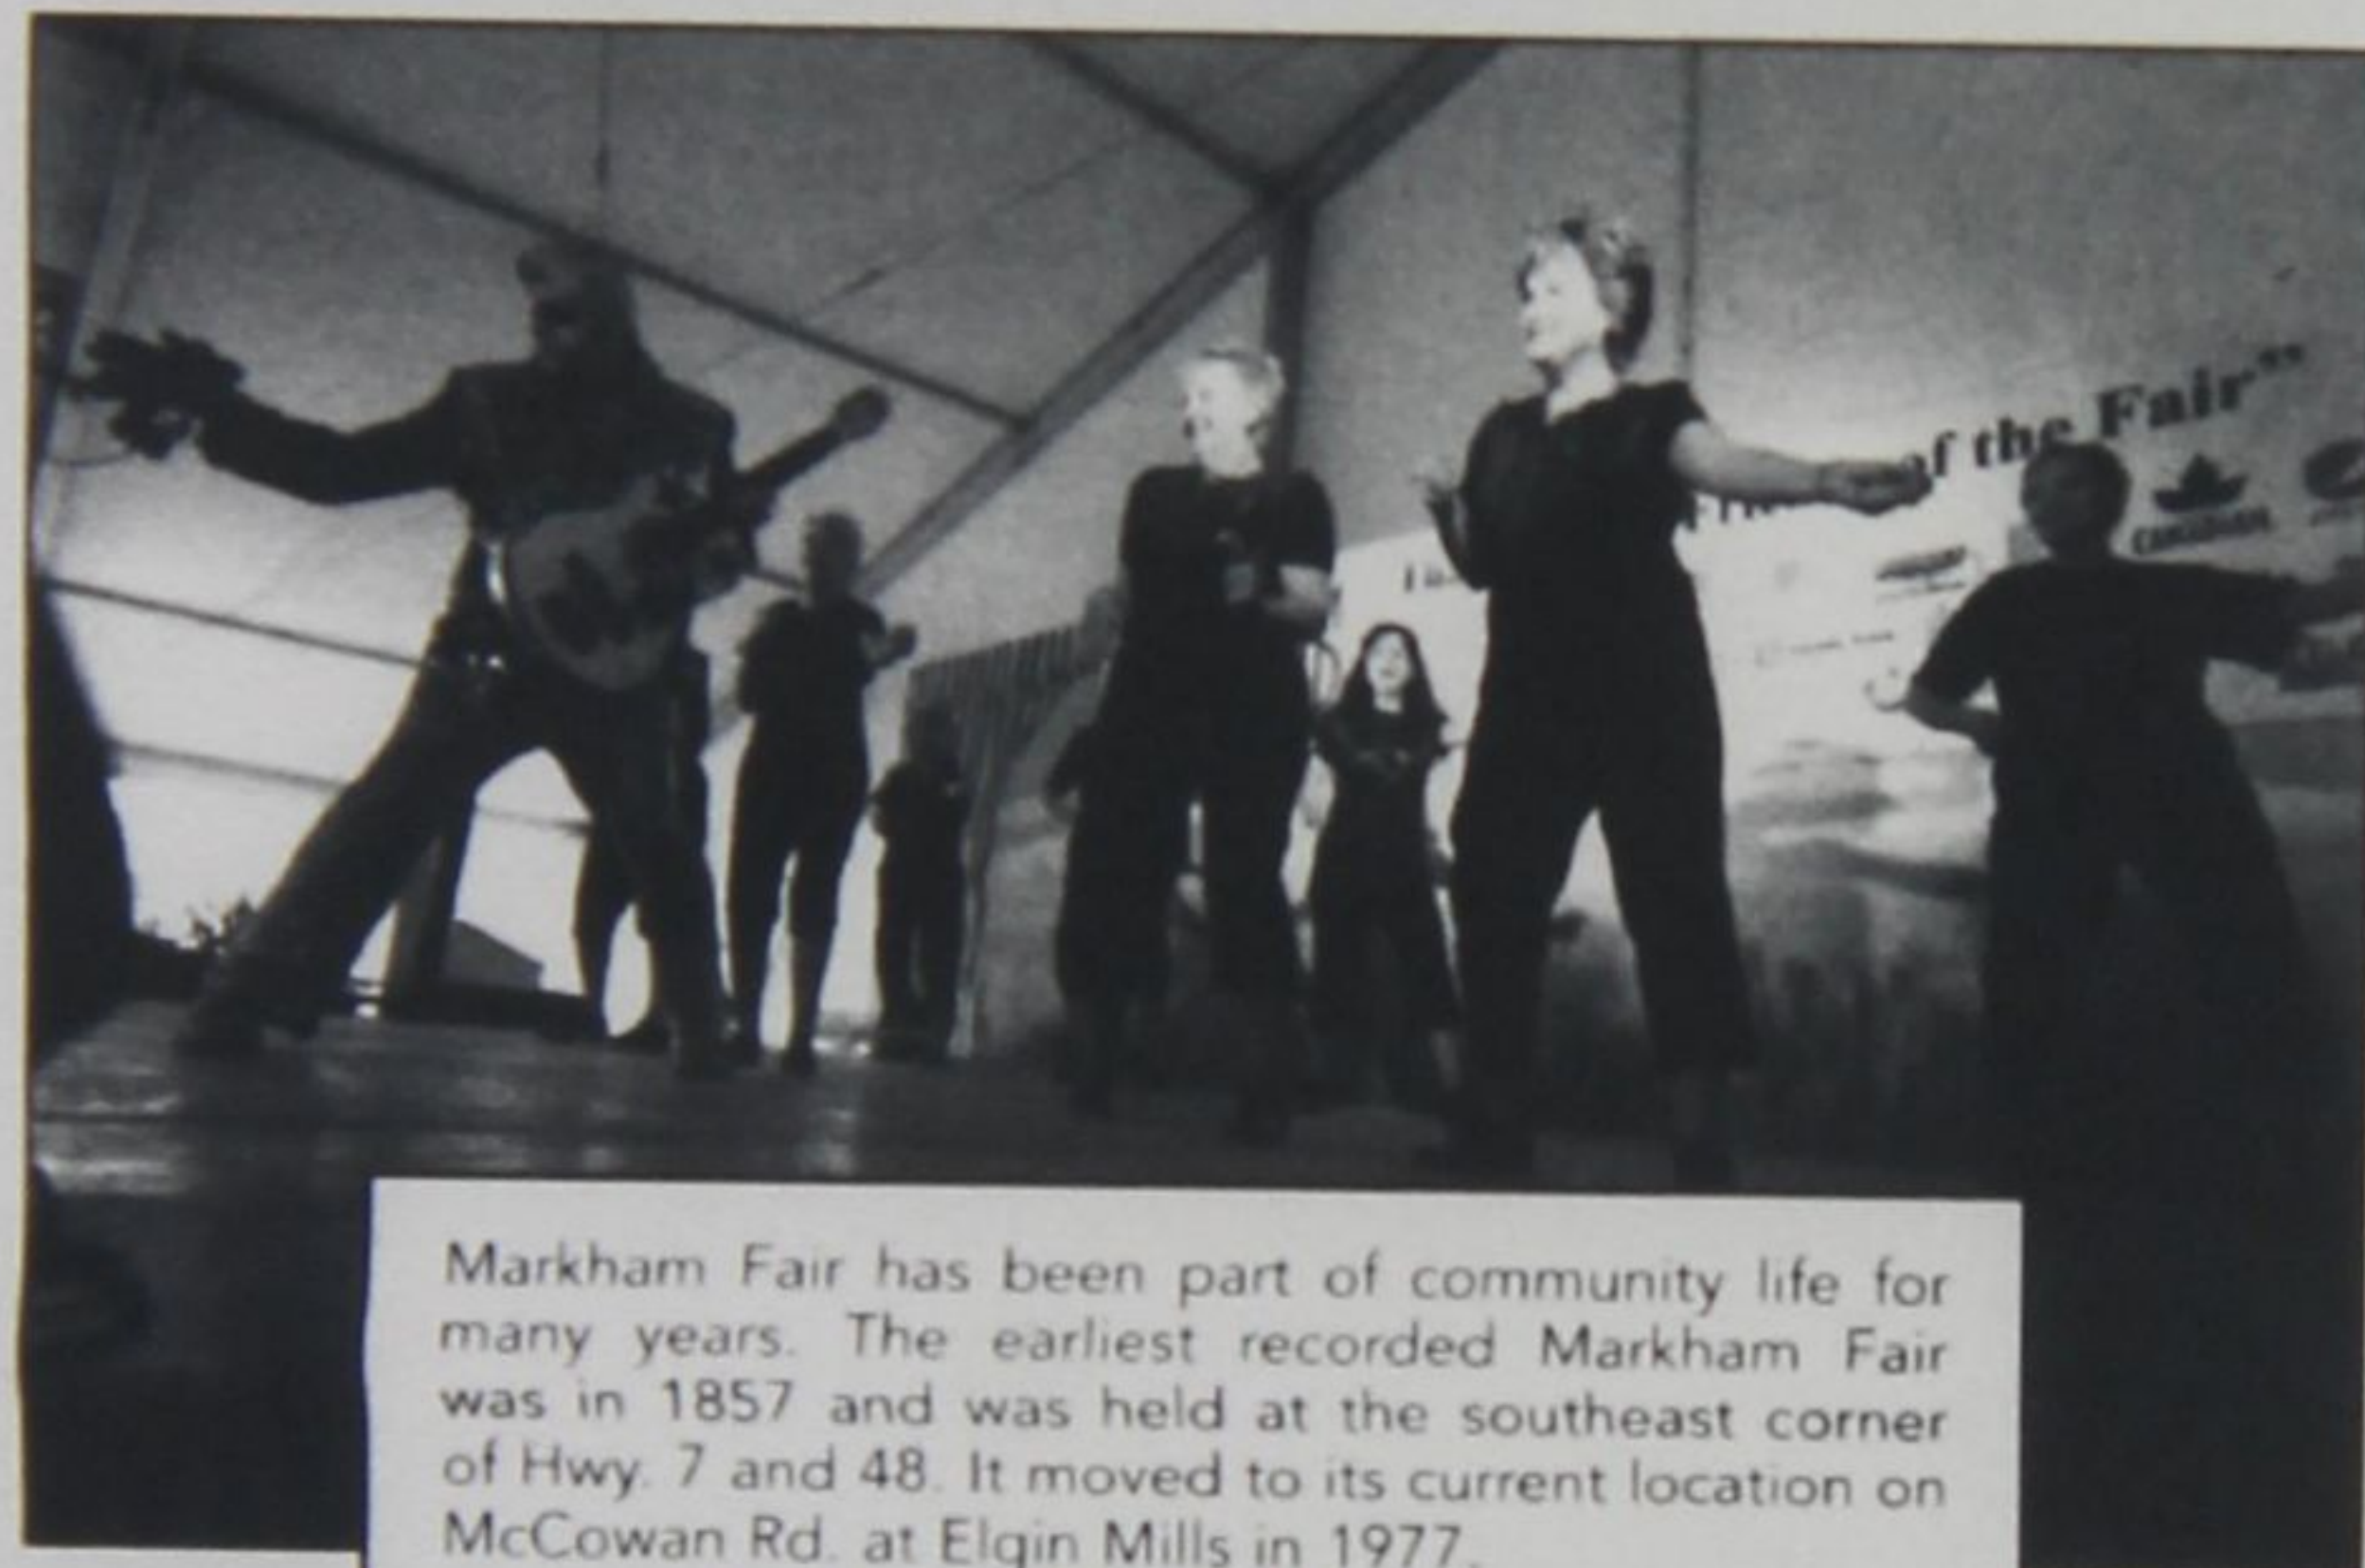

Canada's largest four-day agricultural fair is ready to roll out the fun at Markham Fairgrounds from Oct. 3 to 6.

Although it's called the Markham Fair, it has deep roots in Stouffville, and many of the organizers and volunteers are from this community. As always there will be a massive schedule of events to enjoy, ranging from 4-H livestock shows and craft demonstrations to monster truck madness and a stunning display by the Canadian Forces parachute team also known as the SkyHawks.

Cooking contests, live musical entertainment, quilting demonstrations and wild animal encounters are all part of the fun. Whether you're looking for a truly rural experience or prefer the thrill of the demolition derby, there's something for everyone at this year's fair. Hours are 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Thursday to Saturday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. Shuttle buses will operate between Stouffville and the fairgrounds and there is plenty of parking available at the site.

For full details visit www.markhamfair.ca or call the fair office at 905-642-3247.

Markham Fair has been part of community life for many years. The earliest recorded Markham Fair was in 1857 and was held at the southeast corner of Hwy. 7 and 48. It moved to its current location on McCowan Rd. at Elgin Mills in 1977.
