

GALLERY GOING

By Cass Reimer

Drop by the Latcham Gallery any time between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Nov. 24 or Dec. 8 for an art activity for the whole family, inspired by the latest exhibition. No registration is required.

On Nov. 24 you can create a still life using pastels with exhibiting artist Valerie Ashton, and on Dec. 8 you can make artistic gifts and cards with the artists of the Images '07 exhibition, which features the art of graduating students from Stouffville District Secondary School.

At one of our festival workshops you can create a unique lantern to celebrate the Festival of Lights. You can take it home as a decoration or join us in the lantern parade on Dec. 1 at 7 p.m. Four separate workshops are offered, two on Nov. 12 and two on Nov. 30. Pre-registration is required.

If you're interested in arts programs for youth, we're looking for you. Would you like to make murals, shoot and edit videos, or put on a live art and music event? You provide the ideas, we'll find the artists to teach you. We need young people, aged 12 and up, who are art enthusiasts and/or have an interest in community volunteering. We also need community members with ideas and/or experience. If you can help please call the gallery by Nov. 5.

Valerie Ashton, whose work is featured in the current exhibition, is leading what she calls an extreme scrapbooking workshop for both adult beginners and experienced artists. According to the artist you need no talent or artistic skills to participate, but this form will also appeal to experienced artists adding to their repertoire. The workshop is Nov. 25 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and the registration deadline is Nov. 19.

On Dec 5, decorative artist Amanda Brittin will teach adults and teens to use stone, bone, glass and silver to make stunning necklaces, memory-wire bracelets, and drop or hoop earrings. The beaded jewellery workshop takes place at the gallery Dec. 5 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. and deadline for registrations is Nov. 28.

Artists attract appreciative crowds

Pam Wright displays some of her beautiful paintings during the Stouffville Studio Tour and Sale in October. The 7th annual tour showcased the work of a wide variety of artists and artisans and attracted large numbers of residents and visitors to the community.

Denture-Bite Problems?

Does your lower jaw close in front of your upper teeth like in the picture below? Chances are your teeth have worn down and your jaw is coming closer to your nose when you bite making chewing more difficult and causing premature wrinkles to form around the mouth. Let us change your bite, your smile and your life.
