SORORITY EMBARKS ON 17TH YEAR

Beta Sigma Phi's Stouffville chapter, Laureate Delta Upsilon, starts its 17th year this fall. Most of the members have been in sorority for 25 years and have been part of this chapter since its inception. Over the years the group has raised money for many charities in Stouffville and Markham, the United States and across Canada.

Earlier Start Time For Skating Group

The Stouffville Adult Skating Group will begin its new season of skating Tuesday Nov. 2 at the Stouffville Arena on Ninth Line north. Please note that the club now has an earlier start time of 7:15 p.m. and organizers hope this will encourage more people to attend. Everyone is welcome. For more information call Conny at 905-640-1149.

Stouffville Showcases Emmy Winner

Nineteen on the Park welcomes acclaimed Canadian actress and Emmy award winner Susan Clark in a staged reading of A Woman of Independent Means. A joyous and moving story adapted from the best selling novel by Elizabeth Forsythe Hailey, this delightful mini-saga spans the first seven decades of the 20th century as seen through the letters of a Texan woman. Corresponding with her parents, husband, friends and children, Elizabeth learns to accept life's tribulations with humour, dignity and courage, bravely bearing the death of her first husband and her son and coping with the cruel rejection of her adult daughter. Best known for her roles in Webster and Emily of New Moon, Susan Clark has performed on stages across Canada, including the Shaw Festival. She has starred in 20 movies including Butterbox Babies and Babe. Performances are on Nov. 18 and 19 at 8 p.m. For tickets and information call 905-640-2322 or visit www.nineteenonthePark.com.
