BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS.
The above symptoms are not developed in any order, but appear, disappear and reappear until the disease gradually gets a firm grasp on the constitution, the kidney-poisoned blood breaks down the nervous system, and finally pneumonia, diarrhoea, bloodlessness, heart disease, apoplexy, paralysis, or convulsions ensue and then death is inevitable. This fearful disease is not a rare one—it is an every-day disorder, and claims more victims than any other complaint.

It must be treated in time or it will gain the mastery. Don't neglect it. Warner's SAFE CURE has cured thousands of cases of the worst type, and it will cure you if you will use it promptly and as directed. It is the only specific for the universal

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

We refer our readers to a letter appearing in this issue. It is time such tricks as the one there referred to be put a stop to, and we think we are right in saying such miserable work is punishable by a long term in the penitentiary. It is nothing but downright robbery as the lady was as innocent as anyone of what was transpiring outside. We hope the man (?) will get his deserts.

MOUTH ORGANS.—Just received at the Advance Office the best assortment of Mouth Organs ever seen in the village, at very low prices. Those fond of this sweet instrument should call and see the new ones. Various keys.

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH.

John B. Doris' great Inter-ocean Circus, combined with the New Monster Shows.

Three-Ring Circus—Mammoth Museum, Deep Sea Aquarium—Elevated Theatre Stage and Fifty-Cage Menagerie.

This immense attractive aggregation which is to appear at Uxbridge, on Saturday, August 15th, is without a doubt the largest and most complete show travelling, and the excitement is already making itself manifest among our citizens. Everybody, or nearly everybody is making preparations to go and take all the children. Too much can not be said to urge our amusement loving people to attend John B. Doris' New Monster Shows, consolidated with the Great Inter-Ocean-Triple Circus in three separate rings, Museum, Aquarium, Elevated Stage, and Fifty-Cage Menagerie—Twelve Shows in one. They will positively see the Greatest Show on Earth. Krao, the Missing Link, the Greatest of all Living wonders. More new novelties, attractive features, curiosities, aerialists, bicyclists, jugglers, roller-skaters, athletes, gymnasts, equestrians, equestriennes, rare animals, horses, costumes, riders, chariots, cages, wagons, lordly birds, towering animals, mammoth beasts, and overpowering and truly tremendous features, than ever did exist, or can be possibly gathered together in one show, augmented by everything of value and splendor that money could purchase.

Doris' New Monster show has the reputation of coming fully up to all advertised, and many of our exchanges say they have done more than this. The grand free princely street parade on the morning of the exhibition is a rare sight. Twenty cages of wild animals will be exhibited free of charge on the public streets.

THE RIEL VERDICT.

The verdict in the Riel trial is necessarily and justly calling forth wide attention. As the day of execution, viz: Sept. 18, draws near we may expect to see the excitement heightened. Already an appeal has been entered, and will be tried in Winnipeg on the 3rd prox. The verdict was a somewhat ominous one for the Government, having in it a recommendation to mercy. Why, it is naturally asked, should it have contained a qualification of this nature? The Government organs try to show that it was because he is of unsound mind, and not to be held altogether responsible for his actions. That he is a sort of crank may be admitted; but that he is so "off" as not to be responsible for his actions, no not further "off" will seriously believe. Is it likely that an insane man would have been sent for to come into the country to head an agitation such as that which culminated in the rebellion? Could a man not responsible for his actions have exerted such an influence over his compatriots? To assert such is to charge the whole half-breed race with insanity. But then, if he was of unsound mind, why did the Government allow such a dangerous lunatic to be at large, plotting treason and death? Their responsibility is greatly increased knowing, as they did, his antecedents. Tory organs are driven to painful straits when they urge such absurd pleas as that.

There can be little doubt the recommendation to mercy carried with it a crushing condemnation of the Government's conduct in the administration of the affairs of that country. That such a recommendation was possible in behalf of a man who has led a second rebellion; who has been the cause of destroying so many noble lives, plunging hundreds into deep sorrow and the country into millions of dollars of debt, would be sufficient to wipe out of existence any Government in any other self-governing country on the face of the globe. But the followers of Sir John have long since ceased to put forth any claim to independence, while the Conservative press is so handsomely subsidized as to have no mind on the subject aside from that of their generous patron. We would hope the great bulk of the intelligent electors at the first opportunity will visit that punishment due to a Government who, through oppression and injustice, drove a harmless people into rebellion.

Meanwhile the great question is, what is to be done with Riel? Doubtless Sir John is saying, "I wish to God he may escape!" just as on a former occasion he fervently prayed "he wished to God he could catch him!" with this difference, of course, in the petitions—the petition for his escape is genuine, while that for catching him was hypocritical. For ourselves we have never had much doubt about the issue. We would get a far greater surprise to hear of him being hanged, than made a senator. Probably in a few years he will be retiring to make a place for some distressed member of the Government as he did in behalf of Sir G. E. Cartier on a former occasion. But if the Government interferes in his behalf they incur a tremendous responsibility and declare that their conduct has been so bad that the rebellion has been largely justifiable. By commuting Riel's death sentence, they pass sentence of death upon themselves, which sentence the electors will doubtless execute in due time.

Ottawa Free Press: "Every working man who has a wife and three children—making the average five in family—pays $38.00 in Dominion taxes this year. If he earns the average wages of a dollar a day—he works six weeks and two days—for the Dominion treasury—before he earns a dollar to feed and clothe himself and children. It does not matter whether the taxes are direct or indirect—they come out of his wages all the same."

Forty beds are kept ready in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, in anticipation of an outbreak of cholera.

The remains of General Grant were interred on Saturday with imposing ceremonies.

There are indications that England is preparing for a permanent occupation of Egypt.

There is alleged to be a prospect of an early settlement of the Afghan frontier difficulty.

General Middleton was presented with an address of Welcome on his return to Ottawa on Saturday.

The Marquis of Hartington has declined to act on the committee appointed to consider the depression of trade in England.

Canadian League ball games were played at Toronto and Hamilton on Saturday, the Clippers defeating the Torontos and the Primroses defeating the Londons.

The Mail of Saturday says an Order-in-Council has been published in the Gazette permitting distillers to send spirits, in quantities of not less than ten gallons, into counties where the Scott Act is in operation.

THE CANTASS for names to the Scott Act petition is now in progress in Toronto, and bids fair to be exceptionally successful.

The Ottawa City Council agreed, to present General Middleton with an address on his return to Ottawa.

The Ontario Government have sent a force of constables up the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway to suppress illicit traffic in liquor.

The Canadian House of Commons officials have petitioned for an increase of sessional indemnity, owing to the unusual length of last session.

Midland is becoming notorious for fires, although possessing a steam fire engine. Another fire on Monday morning, in Chew & Week's grist mill, doing damage to considerable extent.

The writs for East Durham and Cardwell have been issued. Nomination in East Durham on Monday, Aug. 17; polling on the 24th. In Cardwell on Thursday, 20th, and polling on the 27th. The writ for St. John, now long vacant, is still held, probably until Sir Leonard Tilley has resigned.

Work on the Callendar extension of the Northern and North-Western Railways is being pushed rapidly forward at both ends of the line. The rails are laid a little over forty miles north from Gravenhurst, that is to a point within five miles of Huntsville; while at the north end they are laid five miles south of Callendar. All the grades between the northern and southern ends of the track are completed, and arrangements are being made so that by the first of November next all the rails will be laid from Gravenhurst to Callendar. At the present rate a mile and a half of rails are laid daily at the southern end, and half a mile at the northern end. There is no doubt the local traffic developed by the road will be very large, and that apart from its function as a road for through freight and travel between western Ontario and Winnipeg, it will be a great colonization road.

The mounted police force in the North West has been increased to one thousand men, who are distributed throughout the Territory as follows: 100 at Carleton, under Col. Cotton; 100 at Calgary, under Col. Herchmer; 200 at Battleford, half at Fort Pitt, under Capt. Dickens; 100 at Prince Albert, under Capt. Gorgman; 90 at Maple Creek, 50 at Medicine Hat, 50 at Edmonton, a detachment at Wood Mountain, and the balance at Regina. With this force in the field, distributed as they are over the Territory, one would suppose they would be able to preserve order.
