A number of guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S George Friday evening previous to the departure of Miss Nellie, of Moulton College, and Master Clarence, of Cannington. A very enjoyable evening was spent. At twelve o'clock refreshments were served in the dining room by the genial hostess. The chief feature of the evening was the battle of Water-Loo.

We regret to learn of the very sudden death of the mother of Mrs. H. J. Morden. The deceased had spent Xmas day with her daughter in Stouffville, returning to Toronto on Friday apparently in her usual health but died suddenly on Saturday from an attack of apoplexy. The remains were conveyed to Brussells for interthe funeral.

The Anniversary Services of the Methodist church were, as usual, quite successful, the congregations, on Sunday were large; the sermons of the Rev. A. Bedford, a former pastor. were clear, logical, practical and forceful presentations of truth and were highly appreciated. At the evening service Mrs. Antoinette Manning sang that beautiful standard solo, "The Holy City". Her unaffected manner her sure, true tones, her distinct articulation and her expressiveness left little to be desired. Our New Year's, evening the "High Tea" prepared by the aladies of the congregation was in great demand and thoroughly enjoyed, everybody pronounced it excellent. The program, too, was of a meritorious character, the resident ministers showing their good will by being present and saying some good things appropriate to the commencement of the new year. It was, however, reserved to the Rev. L. W. Hill also a former pastor, to give the adment.
