SIXTH LINE

Harvesting has been very backward owing to the wet weather.

We are glad to hear Mr. Lorn Clark is recovering from his severe injury which he received a short time ago.

Mr. Eddy Cooney called on Mr. Isaac Lemon on Tuesday evening. Mrs Della Lemon is spending a few days in Toronto.

One of our young men after selling his dower, found it bad walking last Sunday.

Look out for Wedding Bells.

Special sewing machine sale all month, every machine is warranted against defects for five years from date of purchase. Best machine ever manufactured.—Mammoth.

The Ontario Christian Endeavor held a convention at Stratford from Sept. 29 to Oct. 1, inclusive. Every young people's society in the province will send delegates. Rev. A. L. Geggie, Rev. Elmore Harris, Rev. A. Elser, Rev. T. A. Moore and Rev. R. Whiting, Toronto, will deliver addresses.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Scovel Clement, daughter of the Millionaire railroad magnate, Percival W. Clement and William H. Field of New York, a member of the editorial staff of the New York Journal, took place this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. George W. Phillips, pastor of the Congregational Church, the bride having refused to be married by her own rector, Rev. Joseph Reynolds, an Episcopalian clergyman, because he declined to omit the word "obey" in the service.

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage, Uxbridge, on Tuesday, when Mr. Jas. L. Glover, of Ravenshoe, was married to Miss J. F. Palmateer of this town. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibson, of Paarsgeborg. Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple left for the south. On their return from their trip they will reside in Ravenshoe and will be tendered a cordial reception.

Peter Schultz, 10 year old, of Dundalk, was playing with a toy combination of whistle and balloon, which children call a "squawker" when the sudden explosion of the tiny balloon so startled the boy that the wooden whistle, about two inches in length, slipped down his throat and lodged in the larynx between the vocal cords. He was deprived of power of speech and nearly prevented from breathing. Every one of his labored efforts at breathing caused the whistle to sound and attracted attention to the boy's condition. An operation afforded the necessary relief.

Can you recognize a real opportunity? How does fancy silk neck ribbons for 2 1/2c. yd. strike you. Cunliffe & Peters
