A BRONZE FLOWER.

Prettiest Morning Glory That Ever at Mr. T. Carrs.

Bloomed In a Tomato Can. While I devoured my sandwiches, finger marks and all, with a mighty appetite at noontime of my first day at work with the iron molders Mike reached over into a neighboring yard and plucked a crisp climbing morning glory. Holding the delicate blossom up for my inspection, he said, "Young one day last week. feller, kin you make me one just like could not. "But," said he, "you needn't think it can't be done. First you get an old can, punch a hole through the bottom of it with a nail and stick the stem of the flower through the hole, leaving the blossom inside. See?" I saw. "Next you fill the can with water and drop into the water bit by bit nice fine sand. Mind you, go slow. After a long time the Mr Job Kiaser recently. water will leak out, leaving the blossom buried in the sand, but still in good shape. Now you'll dry the whole thing in the core oven and bake it, That will burn the blossom to ashes, Then if you have the patience to shake it and shake it till all the ashes drop out through the stem you'll be ready to pour in your metal, and if you do as I tell you and make no mistake and try about six times you'll have in the end the prettiest morning glory that ever bloomed in a tomato can."-Scribner's.

FRIENDSHIP.

It Imposes Serious Duties Upon Those Who Court It.

"When acquaintanceship ripeus into friendship, something serious has come into one's life," writes Mrs. Henry Graham in the Onlooker. "I don't think that any one can or ought to afford to have more than one or two really intimate friends. If love has gone with friendship-that is, if the gates of paradise have been opened to you, and the guardian angel has sheathed his flaming sword and admitted you through the portals-then you must have given everything, and you have very little left to give. A man can have a man friend and a woman a woman, because there are places where men meet men and women meet women alone, neutral ground where the other sex cannot enter because of its limitations, and there real friendship may live and thrive on the crumbs which fall from the rich man's table.

"For friendship implies something scrious. You must give of yourself, your real self, and once given it cannot be taken back. One has no right to give
