STOUFFVILLE, JUNE 20, 1890.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

Stanley has been appointed Governor General of the Congo Free State, his duties to commence in 1891.

The elections in Quebec on Tuesday resulted strongly in favor of the Government, the majority being placed at from 25 to 30. The leader of the Opposition was defeated in Jacques Cartier.

Mr. Edward Farrer, editor of the Mail, will join the staff of the Globe as an editorial writer after July 1st. Mr. J. S. Willison becomes managing editor of the Globe in place of Mr. John Cameron, and Mr. C. W. Taylor becomes business manager.

CANADIANS UNDISTURBED.

Discussing the probable passage of the McKinley Bill, and its effects upon Canadian trade and enterprise, the Journal of Commerce observes that "the question does not seem to be agitating the mass of the people in spite of the efforts of the purely political journals to distort and misrepresent the issues in the service of their party. It is to be presumed that Canada will persist in quietly minding its own business just as she did after the abrogation of the Reciprocity Treaty by the United States some years ago. The new U.S. tariff will necessarily check the export of our surplus agricultural products and turn them in another direction. There should be no considerable contraction of our output, especially when we consider that the distant colony of New Zealand successfully exports such perishable articles as beef and mutton. The United States may be a more natural market for certain goods but then that country is also a competitor as it produces the same articles, and is glad to sell them, too, in Great Britain. The McKinley Bill is still under consideration, but the deliberations possess little interest for us, because it is almost certain that no changes will be made in the agricultural schedule.

THE ST. CLAIR TUNNEL.

Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, Chief Engineer of Government Railways, has been retained at Sarnia inspecting the St. Clair frontier tunnel, which is being built under the St. Clair river to connect the Grand Trunk and the Chicago and Grand Trunk systems. Mr. Schreiber says that at the Port Huron side 2,300 feet of the tunnel proper have been completed and on the Canadian side 1,600 feet. The excavating is done under the river bed by means of compressed air. Mr. Screiber says the actual work of boring is most interesting, and is done efficiently and expeditiously. The length of the actual tunnel will be 5,950 feet, of which 2,310 feet will be under the river. For the centre portion of this distance 1,708 ft. will practically be on the level, the ascent from the centre on either side being 1 in 50. The approaches comprise an open cutting on the east side of 3,200 feet and on the west side of 2,560. The tunnel, cylindrical in form will have a diameter of 20 feet in the clear, and is being lined with cast iron, the section being 42x18 inches wide and two inches thick. When completed about 28,000 tons of cast iron will have been put in, not to speak of the wrought iron bolts, etc. Behind the iron plates cement grouting is poured to fill up the space formerly occupied by the boring shield before it was forced forward. When the tunnel reaches the centre of the river there will be 18 feet of mud and clay above it and 40 feet of water. By the Subsidy Act of 1880 a subsidy to the extent of 15 per cent. of the value of the work, but not exceeding $370,000, was authorized by Parliament Pending inspection, no portion of the subsidy had been paid over up to the 31st December, 1889, but in that month the Company applied for payment on account of work done, showing a total cash expenditure up to the 31st of October, 1889, of over $667,000. The Chief Engineer reports that the whole work is being carried out in a most satisfactory and substantial manner.

THROUGH A BRIDGE.

A Canadian Pacific Engine Drops Through a Bridge at Adam's Kissing Place Near Alba.

A disastrous accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific Ry at Alba on Tuesday night, by which the lives of five employes of the road were sacrificed. The cause of the accident is laid to the account of the heavy rainstorms of the past few days, which swelled the creeks and streams and greatly weakened the bridges and culverts along the line. Reports concerning the washout brought the bridge inspector, Mr. John Wanless, to Locust Hill, 25 miles east of Toronto, on the 5 o'clock train for Havelock Tuesday evening. In order to make sure that the road was perfectly safe for the evening trains to and from Montreal, Mr. Wanless decided to take the engine of the Havelock train and go over the road between Locust Hill and Claremont. The party consisted of Messrs. Wanless, C. P. R. inspector of bridges; Jerry Moriarty, section fireman at Green River; Hiram Lott, sectionman, son of Wm. Lott, carpenter, of Green River; the engineer, fireman and David Nighswander, assistant postmaster at Locust Hill, Mr. Nighswander having volunteered his services to assist in repairing the washout, in the absence of one of the sectionmen.

The local train going east was stopped at Green River on account of a washout some distance beyond the bridge, the passengers walking to Claremont, a few of whom were told by Mr. R. B. Wallace, A. B. Nighswander, and others to report the dangerous state of the bridge.

Not being aware of this fact, about 11 p. m. an engine and tender with the above men on board started from Green River to repair the washout beyond the bridge. When about three miles from Locust Hill and while going at a rate of about fifteen miles an hour, the ill-fated spot was reached where the horrible fatality occurred. Without a moment's warning the bridge gave way and the engine was precipitated head first into the swollen creek, about twenty feet below. The rush of the water beneath had completely undermined one side of the stone abutment.

The only one of the six persons on board who managed to escape was Nighswander, who was hanging on the handles of the engine looking out for signals. The pilot of the engine struck the opposite bank with great force, and the shock threw Nighswander completely clear of the wreck and into the water beneath. After crawling out he called loudly to his companions but received no response until Mrs. Coulson, who lives near by, came with a lantern and assisted the survivor into her home, after which she went a mile and a half to her brother's, Frank Stiver, who in turn aroused Messrs. Beyer, Wallace, Hoover and others, who immediately went to the rescue with lanterns.

Tidings of the accident quickly reached Locust Hill and Claremont, and all trains were detained. Had it been one of the passenger trains that met with the accident the results would have been fearful, the probability being that the death list would have been much larger.

When the news was received at West Toronto Junction, a wrecking train was immediately made up and despatched to the scene, and at once proceeded to the bridge.

At five o'clock on Wednesday morning the body of Mr. Wanless was discovered tightly wedged between the tender and cab of the engine. The remains were greatly disfigured, the face being terribly scalded.

The body of James Alton, engineer, was found by Mr. Seth Lapp and others at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon about ½ of a mile down the river.

The remains of the fireman, Geo. Oliver, and those of J. Moriarty, sectionman, were discovered about 6:30 yesterday (Thursday) morning. Oliver's body laid beneath the boiler by the bell, and Moriarty's body was partly in the fire hole and pinned down beneath a heavy mass of wreckage, but these bodies cannot be recovered until the debris has been removed.

The remains of Hiram Lott, sectionman, had not been recovered up to the hour of going to press, but a portion of the lungs of a man were picked up in the vicinity of the disaster, and as the bodies of the other victims were not torn open, it is supposed that he has been terribly mangled, and that the portion of the remains found belong to the unfortunate young man. He was about 22 years of age and had been in the empoly of the company but a few days. The others were married and leave both wives and families to mourn their untimely death.

Hundreds of citizens from Stouffville and surrounding country visited the ill-fated spot on Wednesday and Thursday, and ever since the news of the disaster was learned both sides of the stream have been lined with anxious spectators.

A representative of the TRIBUNE visited the place where the accident occurred on Wednesday. It was an affecting scene. Young Hiram Lott's father, grandfather and other relatives with those of Jerry Moriarty and of the other entombed victims anxiously awaiting the recovery of the bodies of their loved ones.

The work of repairing the track was completed on Thursday morning and the men commenced to remove the debris in the afternoon.

Mr. Wanless leaves a wife and five children, who are sadly prostrated over the unexpected calamity. The Canadian Pacific officials speak very highly of their late servant. He has been connected with the road since its inception and was formerly attached to the Toronto, Grey & Bruce. He was about 35 years of age. James Atton, engineer, resided at West Toronto Junction, and was also an old hand on the road, having served on the Credit Valley line. He leaves a family of seven children. George Oliver, fireman, resided at West Toronto Junction, and leaves a wife and three children. Coroner Clendenan, of Claremont, has secured the necessary papers and an investigation will be held at once.

Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup stands at the head of the list for all diseases of the throat and lungs. It acts like magic in breaking up a cold. A cough is soon subdued, tightness of the chest is relieved even the worst case of consumption is relieved, while in recent cases it may be said never to fail. It is a medicine prepared from the active principles or virtues of several medical herbs, and can be depended upon for pulmonary complaints.

Forewarned is Forearmed.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus cramps, dysentery, colic, etc., come suddenly in the night and speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve.

YORK COUNTY COUNCIL.

The County Council resumed business Wednesday. The warden, J. D. Evans, presented the report of a conference with the City Council, in which it was urged that the county build an addition to the registry office at a cost of $10,000. The report was adopted, and Messrs. Evans, Stephenson, Vanzant, Pugsley and Richardson were appointed a committee to carry out the instructions of the Council in the matter. A petition was presented praying that the Village of Chester be incorporated. The Council holds the head of Ald. E.A. Macdonald for all costs in connection with previous efforts in this direction, and decided to entertain no further petitions for the incorporation of Chester until Ald. Macdonald has paid the law costs already incurred. The report of the commissioners on county property was presented and adopted. The report stated that all the York roads were badly cut up and in a bad condition. The tollgates had been relet until July 1st next at the old figures, except the lake shore and Dundas street tollgates, which had been relet at a slightly reduced rate. A petition was presented praying the Council to take steps to have grain weighed on the market scales by disinterested weighers. The petition was tabled. Notice of motion was given that a committee be appointed to ascertain exactly what proportion of cost each municipality must pay for the maintenance and repair of the York roads in the event of the tollgates being abolished.

The County Council resumed business Thursday morning. On motion it was decided to strike off five per cent of the printing payments for every day's delay in delivering matter ordered. It was also decided to pay the Township of Toronto in full for the repairs of the York road in that township. The discussion regarding the abolition of tollgates in York County came up in the afternoon, and there was a pretty lively time of it. Motions and amendments were made, and the warden was frequently called upon to decide points of order and keep the ardor of "progressives" and "anti-progressives" within bounds. At times the hubbub was plentiful. Finally a motion was put that the warden sign forthwith the agreement entered into with the City Council of Toronto, but the agreement is not to go into effect until legislation has been obtained authorising it. It will be remembered that the agreement was that the county abolish tollgates when the city abolishes market fees and assumes control of the Lake Shore road. The yeas and nays were called for on this motion with the following result:—Yeas, 25—Anderson, Armstrong Brown, Bull, Clarke, Davis, Humberstone, Holden, Knowles, T. H. Lloyd, J. W. Lloyd, Morgad, Peterman, Pugsley, Peak, Richardson, Robinson, Scott, Secor, Stephenson, Tamblyn, Winch, Woodcock, Willoughby, Wilson; nays, 20—Arnold, Armitage, Baker, Campbell, Doan, Daley, Forster, Gould, Holborn, High, Jones, McCormick, Pegg, Ross, Russell, Stokes, Schmidt, Slater, Vanzant, Wallace. The result was received with cheers. Mr. Gould at first refused to vote, but the Council compelled him to do so, and he then voted against the abolition of tollgates. It will be seen by the division that the principal obstruction to the removal of the tollgates came from the Townships of Markham, Vaughan and King. The Council went into Committee of the Whole and passed the following new by-laws:—Giving rewards to those whose evidence leads to the conviction of horsethieves; appointing officials of the Industrial Home at Newmarket; appointing school inspectors for the year 1890-91, and to define the High School districts for the county. The Council adjourned at 5.30 p. m.

The Council went into Committee of the Whole on Saturday morning, when a motion was given by T. H. Lloyd, reeve of Newmarket:—"That he will move at the November session that it is advisable to separate the Township of Georgina, North Gwillimbury, East Gwillimbury, King, Whitchurch, and the towns and villages of North York from the County of York, and erect the same into a separate county for all purposes, and that all the questions of accounts between the County of York and the said municipalities be submitted to arbitration for settlement." Mr. Pegg, reeve of East Gwillimbury, gave notice that he would move at the fall session to have the municipality which he represents assume control of all the roads in his section of the county in lieu of having to contribute to the general taxation for the maintenance of the roads. He also intends to ask in November to adopt a resolution allowing Holland Landing to maintain at its own expense all the roads within the boundaries of the village, but that the bridges be still maintained and controlled by the county. It was decided to seek legislation to prevent all reeves and deputy reeves from voting on questions affecting the toll roads in which they are not interested. By this resolution representatives of municipalities not contributing to the taxation on York roads could not vote on matters affecting contributing municipalities. The report of the Committee on Equalization was adopted and recommended that the rate for the present year be levied on the following amounts: Township of York, $4,750,400; Town of North Toronto, $800,000. As the arbitration between the County and West Toronto Junction has not been completed, it was decided that the town of West Toronto Junction be equalized at the sum of $3,000,000.

The Council resumed work Tuesday. The Warden laid on the table a communication from the president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company on the extension of line, and from Ald. E. A. Macdonald on the incorporation of Chester Village. Mr. G. H. Stephenson asked to be appointed county solicitor, and the by-law to appoint a county solicitor was read a second time. The Council then went into Committee of the Whole, and discussed the consolidation of the county by-laws. A long discussion followed regarding the appointment of a county solicitor. The names of Mr. C. C. Robinson and J. K. Kerr, Q.C., were proposed. Ultimately the former gentleman, who is a nephew of Mr. Christopher Robinson, Q. C., was appointed. Mr. Rounden was appointed a director of the Lake Simcoe Junction Railway. The Council went into Committee of the Whole on the revision of the by-laws.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:—Pres., Rev. C. H. Hainer, Newmarket; Sec., Rev. W. S. Cowle, Eddystone; Treas., W. W. Trull.

After the appointment of the active committees for the session, several gentlemen from a distance spoke briefly. Among the number of visitors were Rev. Mr. Goff, of the Disciple brethren; Rev. Mr. Billings, of the Methodist and Rev. Mr. Barker, of the Baptists. Rev. John Willoughby, of Stouffville, occupied the pulpit on Wednesday evening and preached a very acceptable sermon, supplemented by remarks from Revs. Billings, of Orono, Dr. Prosser, of Oshawa, and S. Prossor, of Keswick. On Thursday the pulpit was filled by Mr. Wilson, a young Methodist brother, seeking membership in the body. In the evening Rev. Dr. Summerbell, President of the Christian Correspondence College, N.Y., delivered his celebrated lecture on "The rising young man" to a full house. The lecture was a rare treat, and the subject was handled in a masterly manner. By request the Dr. consented to repeat the lecture on Monday evening at Sharon. On Friday at eleven a. m., Rev. J. T. Winans occupied the pulpit. In the evening Rev. J. Prossor preached a very appropriate sermon, followed by Mr. Goto, a Japanese brother. The remarks of the latter were very interesting and wonderfully instructive. He is at present seeking an English education that he may be better able to serve his own countrymen as a missionaries. The evening collection was given to him and amounted to something over $15. An interesting discussion took place on Saturday morning growing out of a report of the committee appointed at the last annual conference to confer with the Disciple brethren with a view to the amalgamation of the two bodies, but nothing was accomplished. At the close of the morning session the Rev. Mr. Billings of the Methodist Church was duly received as a member of the conference and his name added to the roll On Saturday 2 p. m. the conference met in their Annual fellowship meeting when over one hundred warm testimonies were given in favor of the religion of Jesus, while hundreds expressed their love for Jesus by rising in a body, the time being too limited for oral expressions. At the commencement of the services two young men were set apart for the work of the ministry by the laying on of hands.
