Messrs. Stark, Lennox and Fitch have installed telephones in their homes. The telephone is a great convenience and saves a great deal of time and travel.

The packing companies of the United States have abandoned their plan to combine interests owing to the determined attitude of President Roosevelt towards trusts. They feared that the tariff might be removed on cattle and thus place their products in competition with the foreign article.

Matters are coming to a focus in the strike region in Pennsylvania and it is said that the whole disaffected region is to be overrun with State troops and the mines resumed. Every man who wishes to go to work will be afforded protection. The campaign will be short and decisive.

The stone crusher completed the breaking of the huge heap on the fair grounds yesterday and was today moved to the place in the rear of the oat market. Farmers who have stones to dispose of should haul them in at once while the crusher is being operated and the roads good. Our council are prepared to still take a large quantity.

A large number of silos have been erected in this section this year. Nearly one-third of the farms in this vicinity are now provided with silos. The corn binder is also being largely introduced, the farmers forming syndicates of from three to five members and purchasing a binder. The members of the syndicates help each other reap, and cut the corn and fill each others' silos.

Mr. George Bull, of Scarboro township on Saturday last while threshing at John Wilson's met with a serious accident. In crossing from one row to another he fell and was caught in the cylinder, lacerating one of his feet so badly that it had to be amputated at Toronto General Hospital. He also suffered several internal injuries.

On Tuesday morning Mr. Wm. Clarkson's team ran away from the Foundry with the lumber wagon and when they came to Main street they turned on the railway track and ran south until they were brought to a halt by the sectionmen. It was fortunate that no train came along at the time else things might have been different. No damage was done.

There was a fair attendance at the Congregational Church last evening to hear the interesting and instructive address of Rev. J. D. McEwen on his experiences in South America.

Mr. John Miller, Deputy Minister of Education says that the Department will send out in a few weeks a supply of catalogues of books recommended for school libraries. A copy will be printed for the trustees and teachers of each school section. The list will contain a large number of books suitable for children, and will embrace the best known works in natural science, history, biography, travel, fairy tales, citizenship etc. Mr. Miller said that it is expected that a large number of the schools would take advantage of this assistance granted by the Legislature and that before long nearly every section in the Province would be provided with a library.

Journalism in Formosa. Wherever the modern Japanese goes he starts a paper. Formosa has been generously blessed in this respect, and its two dailies are well worth the subscription price to those who wish to keep in touch with the affairs in the small but lively world for which they cater. According to accepted notions, indeed, it is not only a privilege, but also a duty, to subscribe. Those residents who prefer to see the affairs of their neighbors rather than their own affairs discussed in print lose nothing by subscribing several times over. Remember that that effect not infrequently alienates the news columns.

"The Unspeaking Best." Comparisons are said to be odious; but the following are most interesting. The Scotsman earns more than either the Englishman or Irishman. The Scotsman earns on the average £45 a year the Englishman £38 and the Irishman £20. Scotsmen, too, appear to be most thrifty. In the savings banks each Scotsman has £5 4s., each Englishman £3 and each Irishman £2. Industrial and co-operative societies sell £3 worth of goods to each Scotsman, £1 10s. worth to every Englishman and 2s. worth to every Irishman.—People's Friend, Dundee.

"Walter" But Not "Mind." Lord Roberts once found himself the centre of a circle of new friends in London Club. There was a very tall gentleman present, who, evidently believing himself to shine as a wit, seized every opportunity to raise a laugh at the other people's expense. On being introduced to Lord Roberts the wit bent down patronizingly to his lordship and remarked: "I have often heard of you, but I have never seen you."

"I have often seen you, sir, but I have never heard of you."

Everyone present was delighted with Lord Roberts's reply, and the "wit" soon afterwards disappeared.—London Answers.

On Friday night last the cash drawer of Beal & Co. was broken into and robbed of $65. The matter was kept quiet and a dollar bill, full particulars of which were preserved, was placed in the drawer as a bait. It was also taken on Tuesday morning. The business men of the town were notified to be on the lookout for it, and it soon turned up at the Bassoon House being tendered by Sylvester Castor, who was immediately arrested for theft. At the trial, which followed, he claimed to have received it from the night watchman, Brown, of Beal & Co.'s tannery, in payment for some furniture. The case was adjourned.
