ADMISSION 25 and 15c.

S. G. SCHMIDT, Prop.

Mrs. Frank Williamson, Church street, is confined to her bed through illness.

School reopened on Tuesday with probably an increased attendance in both high and public. All the pupils however, will not be on hand until next week.

Out of 29 acres of alsike sown this season, one of our well known farmers, Mr. Dan Hall, has got threshed 29 acres and it yielded 160 bushels of seed. This is probably the largest acreage of alsike in this section, and it is proving a splendid yield.

Anne Lehman, A.T.C.M. (Teacher's Course), will teach in her studio over the store on Fridays and Saturdays, commencing Sept. 9th. Special interest taken in all grades of Piano-forte playing, also Theory. Phone 4301.

Mr. Howard McClure has sold his 85 acre farm at lot 6, con. 8, Whitechurch, to Mr. Fred Morrison, formerly of Siloam district, Uxbridge Township. The sale price is reported as $7,000. Possession will be given next spring. Of recent years Mr. Morrison lived in New Ontario.

When engaged in drawing in grain one day last week on the farm of Mr. Joseph Helise at Gormley, Mr. Geo. Barrett, an employee, fell from the top of a load and sustained a dislocated shoulder and fracture of the right arm just below the shoulder. His injuries, while not of a serious nature, will lay him off work for some weeks.

Mr. F. J. Ward, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ward of the Brier Bush, who visited his parents over Sunday, and preached at Musselman's Lake at the morning church service, has been appointed to a professorship in the Chicago University, and takes up his duties at the end of September. This is an appointment that might bring pride to any family.

The 100 acre farm at lot 11, concession 6, Whitechurch, belonging to Mr. A. H. Raymer of Stouffville, has just been sold to the tenant, Mr. Alfred Dickinson, for $11,000. This is a very good property, with fair buildings. Mr. Raymer purchased the place 23 years ago from the late N. Claughton, for $6,100, but spent considerable on improvements to the buildings. Mr. Dickinson has immediate possession.

Stouffville School Fair next Monday, Sept. 12th, in the Arena.

When she accidentally stepped into a pan of boiling water, little Edith Borinsky severely scalded her one foot last week.

Commencing Monday, Sept. 12th the U.F.O. will ship every Monday morning or afternoon. Phone Newton Rae, 8403.

COMING—F. E. Luke, 167 Yonge St., Toronto's able eye sight specialist, may be consulted about your eyes for glasses at J. Boardway's drug store, Stouffville, Thursday, Sept. 15th.

One of our citizens, Mr. George Simpson, almost captured the prize of $300 for the nearest guess to the exact time of the big Wrigley swim in Toronto. His guess was 11 hours and 16 seconds, whereas the correct time was 11 hours and 42 seconds.

The Women's Institute will conduct a booth at the School Fair, held in the Park, on Sept. 12th. Lunch will be served, consisting of sandwiches, hot dogs, cake, pie, ice-cream tea, coffee, drinks and candy at reasonable prices. You may also check anything at the booth free of charge.

There passed away at Evanston, Ill., on Sept. 2nd, Charles Watts in his 88th year. He will be remembered as the basket maker in Stouffville some 15 years ago, conducting a thriving business on the property north of the Christian church. His funeral took place from the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. H. L. Daniel in Toronto, to Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Harry Pennock, eldest son of Mr. Edw. Pennock, has been granted his entrance certificate, and is now attending High school. Harry passed in all subjects excepting grammar, but on his papers being re-read he obtained the few marks necessary to put him "over the top". This makes Principal Cedric Watson's standing still better, having put through 18 pupils out of the 19 that wrote.

The marriage of Miss Mary Alced Byrne, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Urquhart, to Mr. Leonard Maurice Keeping, took place in the United Church, Fenelon Falls on Tuesday, August 27th, 1927, by Rev. C. C. Washington. The couple will make their home at the Falls where the groom is engaged as a barber. Last winter he was engaged in this capacity with the local tonsorial artist, Benj. Doten. The bride is a local girl, having spent most of her life here with her grandparents.

Hebron Elson of Uxbridge Township, who was before Magistrate Hamilton at Uxbridge, on a charge of setting fire to a hay stack on his parents farm, August 17th, was committed for trial at Whitby. The charge was laid by Constable Lorne Reid of Claremont. The accused on the morning of the fire had trouble with his parents and shortly after he left the house the hay stack was seen to be on fire. He admitted being by the stack, but claimed to have been shooting ground hogs. W. C. Pollard acted for the crown and W. F. Greig for the defence.

GORMLEY

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Helise of Gormley, and Mrs. Wallace Walton and Mrs. Rose of Toronto, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Ira Badgero's, Stouffville, last week.

Albert Davis, a resident of this section eleven years ago, paid a hurried visit here last week from his home at Clarence Centre, N.Y. He is working a farm there since the death of the owner, Daniel Helise, but would like to locate near Gormley again. Mr. Davis is prepared to rent, or manage a farm for someone. He has a wife and four children, and is a member of the Tunkard church.

ALMIRA

Herb. Spofford has completed his new verandah at the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young spent a short time in this community last week.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Edgar Nigh is rapidly recovering her illness, having been under the doctor's care for some time.

On Sunday, Mr. P. E. Steckley motored to Stayner, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robson Jewett. They returned on Monday accompanied by Mrs. Steckley and daughter, Mary, who had spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sheffer.

The Westminster Guild held their opening meeting last Thursday evening, the following officers being elected:—President, Bruce Lehman; Vice President, Mrs. Alf. Smith; Secretary, Clara Topham; Treasurer, Eleanor White; Organists, Madorie Lehman and Verda Gayman. The Executive consisting of the above named officers, will meet on Thursday of this week to draw up the program for the coming year.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to convey to the many friends and neighbors my sincere appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear husband and father. Mrs. John Sanders and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother Annie Jewett, who passed away, Sept. 5th, 1926. What happy hours we once enjoyed. How sweet their memories still. But they have left an aching void The world can never fill. Alex. and Edith and granddaughter Anna.
