

CURED BY TAKING

Cherry

"I contracted a severe cold, which settled a doctor, who found, on examining me, that the upper part of the left lung was badly affected. The medicines he gave me did not seem to do any good, and I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking a few doses my trouble was relieved, and before I had finished the bottle I was cured." -A. LEFLAR; watchmaker, Orangeville, Ont.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Highest Awards at World's Fair. Ayer's Pills Cure Indigestion.

NEAR ORANGEVILLE. Two Men Working In a Sawmill at Monticello Instantly Killed By the Burst-Ing of a Boller-A Dozen Others Were

More or Less Injured and Some May A despatch from Orangeville says :- By the explosion of a boiler in a sawmill at Monticello on Wednesday afternoon, two men were killed and several seriously in jured. Some of the wounded were badly hurt and may die. The names of the killed are : Robert McQuarrie, age 24, single, lived in Orangeville.

Those wounded were : Otto Hendrickson arm torn off; James Bowers, -- Walke: and-Cooper, seriously hurt. Severa others were more or less injured. In the afternoon about 5 o'clock the crowded with workmen. The water in the boiler grew low, but title attention se of blinding dame and the nuge piece of metal flew into- innumerable nieces. Crashing through the roof it went, was a terrible silence for a moment. From the ruins of the mill came the feeble cries of those mortally stricken.

tenderly carried away. The wounded were | with General Naaman than any other per- | woman like that and let me, a titled pertaken to a farm house near by, where kind son. Naaman's wife walks the floor sonage, sit here in my chariot and wait hands ministered to their hurts.

although it may be clucidated by the in | suffering. All remedies have failed. The. Ha! ha! The climy Jordan, the muddy quest which was commenced this evening.

UNCLE SAM AND JOHN BULL.

Working Harmoniously They Could Easily Rule the Commercial World.

says the London Times, we find that our imorts from the United States have been worth about $500,000 a year, of which 80 per cent. consists of food stuffs and raw mater a servant girl in her house, to whom she tals and is essential to the existence of our manufactures and our export trade. The full overborn by the sorrows of the world and and to the United States, is realized only of some humble domestic-Rose or Dinah economists to be taking place, of the center listening to any talk of a servant girl." be seized upon by an everlasting wasting when set in diamonds, one of the chosen inspired prophet of the ancient day whose of the coal and iron industry from Great But do not scoff, do not sneer. The finger away. Obey and live; disobey and die stones for the engagement ring, and the privileges were equal to those of the least of Britain to the United States supplies-if of that little captive maid is pointing in Thrilling, overarching, undergirding, stu- woman who can claim among her as- the followers of Christ now. we accept the fact -another and very seri- the right direction. She might have said: pendous alternative! ous reason in favor of commercial union "This is a judgment upon you for stealing So, after all, it seems that this faith exemvied, not pitied.—Jeweler's Circular. with America. The conditions are such me from my native land. Didn't they eursion of General Naaman is to be a dead that the United States and the British snatch me off in the night, breaking my failure. That little Hebrew captive might empire must either compete for, or unite to father's and mother's hearts, and many a as well have not told him of the prophet, hold, the command of the commerce of the time I have lain and cried all night because and this long journey might as well world. United, we safely might defy com- I was so homesick." Then, flushing up not have been taken. Poor, sick, dying did not suit? petition from any of the other machine- into childish indignation, she might have Naaman! Are you going away in high using peoples. The dominating forces in said: "Good for them. I'm glad Naaman's dudgeon and worse than when you came! husband.-Life. commerce are usually held to be food, fue!, got the leprosy. I wish all the Syrians As his chariot halts a moment his servants iron and copper. It to these we add the had the leprosy!" No. Forgetting her clamber up in it and coax him to de human factor, man, America and Great personal sorrows, she sympathizes with as Elisha said. They say: "It's easy. I Butain may claim to own them all in a su- the suffering of her master and commends the prophet had told you to walk for s preme degree. The exact centre of each him to the famous Hebrew prophet. special industry would matter little. With No wonder the advice of this little He- this awful disease, you would have done should be invincible. Health Not Risked.

Mrs. Suburb-" I never noticed until we moved into this house that the pump is out-doors."

nice and cool in summer, ma'am." "But I don't want to be running outdoors dozens of times a day in winter." "No need to, ma'am. The pump always freezes up 'a cold weather."

REV. T. DE WITT TALMAGE DWELLS ON THE LEPROSY OF SIN.

Way to Higher Joys-Spiritual Happi- lance winds through the streets of Damas- shakes the water out of nostril and eye ness Attained Through a Humble Spirit, Moral Lepers.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 18.-Rev. Dr. Talmage

tions, but with a disease worse than all these put together. A red mark has come rush into the long-closed room. Good-by, has gone out of his throat. He bows the of John's embassy: 1. That it was for Naaman! There is only one cheerful face girth time and comes up, and all the soredisfigurement and dissolution. - I have something awful to tell you. General Naaman, the commander in chief of all the Syrian forces, has the leprosy! It is on his bim. As the chariot winds out, and the and he home the careath time is to the nands, on his face, on his feet, on his ensemble escort of mounted couriers, and the mules, flood and he comes up, and not so much way of the pestilence! If his breath strike ambroidered suits of apparel went through way or the pestilence: It his breath strike embroidered suits of apparel, went through big as the head of a pin is to be seen on allegiance fully to Jesus; hence the embass you, you are a dead man. The commander in chief of all the forces of Syria! And the gates of Damascus and out on the long him. yet he would be giad to exchange condi-tions with the boy at his stirrup or the hos-tinue goes right post the battlefields where tions with the boy at his stirrup or the hostinue goes right past the battlefields where say, "Is it possible?" And as, with the tler that blankets his charger. The news Naaman, in the days of his health, used health of an athlete, he bounds back into goes like wildfire all through the realm, and the people are sympathetic, and they cry out, "Is it possible that our great hero, who slew Ahab and around whom we came with such vociferation when he returned from victorious battle-can it be possible that our grand and glorious Naa-

Delilah to shear him; Ahab, a Naboth to never get home alive. Poor man!" deny him; Haman, a Mordecai to irritate FRIGHTFUL BOILER EXPLOSION wife to pester him; Leah, weak eyes; Pope, a crooked back; Byron, a club foot; John Milton, blind eyes; Charles Lamb, an insane sister, and you and you and you and you something which you never bargained for and would like to get rid of. The rea-hands in this pleasant society. ciety and more radiant prosperties. God is only whipping us ahead. The reason that Edward Payson and Robert Hall had Alex. Darraugh, married, live in Orange | people had was because, through their he is preparing to substitute a better body rosy. The one was as hard to get rid of as guess you must have become a Christian. who refused his baptism. Our Lord's final than you ever areamed of when the mortal the other. Elisha sits quietly in his house Father, I think you have got rid of the words show how lacking in deep sincerity sawmill of T. E. Essery, at Monticello, was running in full biast. The mill was shall put on immortality. Suddenly there was a deafening that God sends upon you, as he did upon eral Naaman to bathe seven times in the General Naaman something you do not ever Jordan out youde 3 0 g s, and he want. Seated in his Syrian mansion, all the will get entirely well. The message walls glittering with the shields which he comes out. "What!" says the commander scattering death all around. Then there had captured in battle, the corridoru crowded with admiring visitors who just dling with an animation which it had not wanted to see him once, music and mirth shown for weeks and his swollen foot and banqueting filling all the mansion The remnants of his arm hanging by his from tessellated floor to pictured ceiling, gardless of pain. "What! Isn't he comside, Otto Hendrickson staggered from the Naaman would have forgotten that there ing out to see me? Why, I thought cerwreck. Other workmen who were unin- was anything better and would have been tainly he would come and utter some cabjured came to his assistance, and the hunt glad to stay there 10,000 years. But, oh, alistic words over me or make some enigfor those buried among the debris was be- how the shields dim, and how the visitors matical passes over my wounds. Why, I gun. Guided by the cries of the wounded, fly the hall, and how the music drops dead don't think he knows who I am. Isn't he the work of rescue was eagerly commenced from the string, and how the gates of the coming out? Why, when the Shunamite and soon every man who was in the build- mansion slam shut with sepulchral bang, woman came to him, he rushed out and ing at the time of the explosion was ac- as you read the closing words of the eulo- cried: 'Is it well with thee? Is it well surgeon general and the doctor of the Jordan, the monotonous Jordan! royal staff have met, and they have shaken | wouldn't be seen washing in such a river their heads, as much as to say, "No cure, as that. Why, we watered our horses in a no cure!" I think that the office seekers | better river than that on our way herehad all folded up their recommendations | the beautiful river, the jasper paved river and gone home. Probably most of the of Pharpar. Besides that we have in our employes of the establishment had drop- country another Damascene river, Abana, Taking an average of the last five years, | ped their work and were thinking of looking for some other situation. What shall and ever clear, under the flickering shad now become of poor Naaman's wife? She must have sympathy somewhere. In her despair she goes to a little Hebrew captive, tells the whole story, as sometimes, when coal and iron to spare for each other, we brew captive threw all Naaman's mansion it. It is easy. Come, my lord, just get and Ben-hadad's palace into excitement. down and wash in the Jordan. You take and ridged and inflamed by the pestilence mate it is so hot that it will do you good insanity in our family until some member and aided by those who supported him on Do it on our account, and for the sake of of it makes a will that doesn't suit us. either side, he staggers out to the chariot. the army you command, and for the sake Hold fast the fiery coursers of the royal of the nation that admires you. Come the vehicle. Bolster him up with the as you say." The retinue drive to the pillows and let him take a lingering look brink of the Jordan. The horses paw and Agent-" That's so the water will be swollen feet and pain struck limbs into "Well," he says, "to please you I will de at his bright apartment, for perhaps the neigh to get into the stream themselves Hebrew captive may be mistaken, and the next time manman comes to that place ne man, assisted by his attendant to the THE SICK GENERAL may be a dead weight on the shoulders of out of his chariot and painfull comes to those who carry him, an expired chieftain | the brink of the river and step in unti seeking sepulture amid the lamentations | the water comes to the ankle and goes or of an admiring nation. Good-by, Nas deeper until the water comes to the girdle man! Let the charlot drive over the hills and now, standing so far down in the of Hermon, lest he jolt the invalid. Here stream, just a little inclination of the head Suffering Sent Into the World to Show the goes the bravest man of all his day, a cap will thoroughly immerse him. He bows tive of a horrible disease. As the ambu- once into the flood and comes up and cus the tears and prayers of all the people and his attendants look at him sad say, go after the world-renowned people. from your house on a health excursion. the flood and comes up, and the wild stare to rally his troops for fearful onset, and the chariot and drives on there goes up then the procession stops and reclines from all his attendants a wild "Huzza! awhile in the groves of olive and olean- Huzzal" Of course they go back to pay der, and General Naaman so sick, so very, and thank the man of God for his counsel

How the countrymen gaped as the pro- the prophet's house, they went of mad. cession passed! They had seen Naaman They have come back glad. People al-Yes. Everybody has something he wishes go past like a whirlwind in days gone by ways think better of a minister after they he had not—David, an Absalom to disgrace him; Paul, a thorn to sting him; Job, war equipments, but now they commiser-people had was because, through their instructions and not on the Lord God, and would welcome the glad tidings. Your rivals, then astonishes his hearers by say-and does not go out. After awhile, when leprosy." O Lord God of Elisha, have were both classes. It is to push you on and to push you up he thinks he has humbled this proud man, mercy on us! toward something grander and better he says to a servant, "Go out and tell Genin chief of the Syrian forces, his eye kinstamping on the bottom of the chariot, re- And ponder long before he puts gium: "He was a leper! He was a leper!" | with thy husband? Is it well with thy The bodies of the two dead men were There was one person more sympathetic | child?' And will he treat a poor unknown wringing her hands and trying to think and wait? I won't endure it any longer. The cause of the explosion is unknown, what she can do to alleviate her husband's Charloteer, drive on! Wash in the Jordan, with foliaged bank and torrent ever swift ows of sycamore and oleander. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel?" Americans would feel if, by way of med- are brought into prominence to meet the monarchs.

mile on sharp spikes in order to get rid o: Good-by, Naaman! With face scarified a bath every day anyhow, and in this cli

Christ's Testimony to John" Luke 7. 24

35. Golden Text, Luke 7-37.

Perhaps you have had an invalid go out look!" And he bows a second time into caged at "Black Castle." His disciples

After all, John was but human. True, he had beheld the heavens parted, and the Spirit descending on Jesus, and heard the livine voice. On the strength of that scene he had pointed Jesus out as the so fraught with wisdom. When they left | Christ. But all this is far clearer to us than it was to him. And then, like the greatest of natures-like Moses and Elijah before him, like Savonarola and Luther since-he had moments of despondency. grace him; Paul, a thorn to sting him; Job, ate him. They say: "Poor man! He will I suppose that was a great time at Dacarbuncles to plague him; Samson, a never get home alive. Poor man!" Even John never rose to adequate concepmascus when General Naaman got back | far below any just comprehension of the General Naaman wakes up from a rest- The charioteers did not have to drive slow- most spiritual of the apostles fe l, even deny him; Haman, a Mordecai to irritate less sleep in the chariot, and he says to ly any longer, lest they jolt the invalid, after years of training by Jesus himself. him; George Washington, childlessness to the charioteer, "How long before we shall but as the horses dashed through the it was a conception that could not be afflict him; John Wesley, a termagant reach the Prophet Elisha?" The chariotereach the Prophet Elisha?" The chariot- streets of Damascus I think the copie grasped till after the ascension of Christ eer says to a waysider, "How far is it to rushed out to hail back their chi-ftain. and the descent of the Spirit. Jesus was Elisha's house?" He says, "Two miles." Naaman's wife hardly recognized her hus- not doing the work John expected. Herods "Two miles?" Then they whip up the band. He was so wonderfully changed she and Pilates and Caiaphases were still in lathered and fagged-out horses. The had to look at him two or three times lefore power. John was languishing in prison, whole procession brightens up at the she made out that it was her restore hus Wnere was his winnowing fan ? Wny did son of this is that God does not want this prospect of speedy arrival. The chario ears world to be too bright. Otherwise we shout "Whose" to the horses and tramp world to be too bright. Otherwise we shout "Whoa!" to the horses, and tramping: "Did he cure you? Did he cure you?" cometh, or look we for another?" Jesus inchange and grinding wheels cease shak. would always want to stay and ear these ing hoofs and grinding wheels cease shakfruits and lie on these lounges and shake ing the carth. Come out Elisha come out. ing the earth. Come out, Elisha, come out. tapestry of the windows was drawn away, with an evident allusion to Isa. 61 sends We are only in the vestibule of a grand You have company. The grandest comtemple. God does not want us to stay on pany that ever came to your house has with the princely mirth inside, and the lave seen and heard; the blind receive temple. God does not want us to stay on come to it now. No stir inside Elisha's feet went up and down in the dance, and their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are and annoyances and sorrows and bereaveand annoyances and sorrows and bereave formed Elisha that the sick captain was echoed and re-echoed with the news: "Naa- up, the poor have the Gospel preached to ments of all sorts to push us on and push formed Elisha that the sick captain was echoed and re-echoed with the news: "Naa- up, the poor have the Gospel preached to ments of all sorts to push us on and push coming and just how to treat him. In- man's cured! Naaman's cured! But a them;" and tenderly adds, "Biessed is he, deed when you are sick and the Lord wants you to get well he always tells the soul should get cured of its leprosy. The stumbling in me."-B. S. Dean. The

EXPLANATORY AND PRACTICAL NOTES.

I sit upon my ox team, calm, Beneath the lazy sky, And crawl contented through the land And let the world go bs. The thoughtful ox has 'earned to wait And nervous impulse smother, One foot before the other. And men with spanking teams pass to And dash upon their way As if it were their hopes to find The world's end in a day. And men dash by in palace cars-

On me dark frowns they cast, As the lightning-driven Present frowns Upon the slow old Past. Why do they chase, these men of steam Their smoke flags wide unfurled, Pulled by the roaring fire-tiendy That shakes the reeling world? What do ye seek, ye men of Acam, So wild and mad you press?

THEOX

Is this is this the railroad line That leads to happinessr And when you've swept across the day And dashed across the night, Is there some station through the hills Where men can find delight? Ah, toward the depot of Content, Where no red signals stream, I go by ox team just as quick As you would go by steam!

-S. W. Foss.

Diamonds the Popular Stones. Through all changes, when every stone 27. Of whom it is written. In Mal. 3 I suppose Naaman felt very much as alone, incomparable. In these days stones sent out to prepare the way for oriental

> He Knew His Business, Proprietor-Why did you tell the laily ed, and thus honored God. Rejected the you would not return her money if the tie counsel of God against themselves. That New Clerk-She was buying it for har which John's preaching and baptism were times in the New.

Only Five Times in the Bible, twice in the Old Testament, and the like.

Then it Comes Out. We are never willing to admit there n

Not Their Fault.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

Jesus is now in the happy, busy days of "Why, general, how much better you do his early popularity. John's eagle spirit is You know how the neighbors stood around is gone out of his eye. He bows the third like Paul's friends at Cosarea, have access has chosen as the subject or to-day's ser-mon through the press "The Sick Gener-again alive!" Oh it was a solemn moagain alive!" Oh, it was a solemn mo- shriveled flesh has got smooth again. He thing of the movements of Jesus. Calling 'He was a leper.'

Here we have a warrior sick, not with pleurisies or rheumatisms or consumptively shalf and to throw open the shelf and to throw open to the first time into the front time into the floor and two of his disciples, John sends them to comes up, and the hair that had fallen out is restored in thick locks again all wer the vials from the shelf and to throw open to comes up, and the hair that had fallen out is restored in thick locks again all wer the vials from the shelf and to throw open to comes up, and the hair that had fallen out is restored in thick locks again all wer the pleurisies or rheumatisms or consumptions. the shutters, so that the fresh air might flood and comes up, and the hourseness Two views are held as to the purposes looking at him, and that is the face of the ness and anguish have gone out of the his disciples' sake. He was conscious that little Hebrew captive, who is sure he will limbs. "Why," he says, "I am almost his own work was done. He had full faith him. As the chariot winds out, and the and he bows the seventh time into the before closing his career that all his dis.

doctor how to treat you, and the reason we swiftest white horses hitched to the King's messengers depart, and then follows the have so many bungling doctors is because chariot would rush the news into the ter- testimony which constitutes the present they depend upon their own strength and nal city. Our loved ones before the theone lesson. Christ exaits John above all human aches and pains, God pushed them hearer up to it. If God dashes out one of your pictures, it is only to show to you a brighter pictures, it is only to show to you a brighter out, Elisha, and attend to your business. General Naaman and his retinue waited the change in your look and the change in to John" marked a sharp line of division brain with neuralgia, your tongue with an and waited and waited. The fact was your manner and would put their rms between the common people who had heard Naaman had two diseases-pride and lep around your neck and say: "Mother, I John gladly and the Pharisees and doctors > Verse 24. i'ne messengers of John. See "General Statement" and Luke 7. 17-23, Were departed. (1) The true friend is he who speaks to us in warning and of us in praise. Recall what John had said about Jesus (John 1. 26, 27, 29-36; and 4. 25-36. Into the wilderness. The shores of Jordan. A reed. This question has the force of a negative. John was not, then, what the people might have inferred from his question, a fickle, vacillating man, now believing and now doubting; but a man of firm character, constant in prosperity and firm against the hate of Herod and the neglect of the people. (2) God's heroes must be men of firmness and strength of purpose.

25, 26. A man clothed in soft raiment? An alluson to John's rough garb and selfdenying life, and his superiority to influences that control ordinary mortals. In King's courts. Where they might look a Herod, but never find a John. (3) LGod's ever ofter or look with interest upon the cottage than upon the palace. A prophet? John not only held a place with Samuel, Isaiah, and Elijah, and the rest of the goodly tellowship of the prophets, but in honor he was above them all. More than a prophet. The others had forseen a Saviour centuries distant; John alone of the prophets beheld him and pointed to him close at hand, and baptized him for his work, thereby witnessing the fulfillment of his own predictions. seems to have its day, the diamond stands 1. Before thy face. Heralds were usually ical prescription, some one should tell us demand for variety, and such stones as the 28. There is not a greater prophet than to go and wash in the Danube or the amethyst, the aquamarine, the chrysobergl, John the Baptist. (4)God's estimate of significance of the figures, alike to ourselves have gone out and found in the sympathy Rhine. We would answer, "Are not the golden carnelian and many other stones greatness is very different from man's. This when we remember that the total value of or Bridget-a help which the world could Or as an Englishman would feel if he were cut and set as to greatly increase their in- was the most eloquent or the most marvel-What a scene it w 2! One of the grand- must-go and wash in the Mississippi or ionable just at present in the form of collar godly. A prophet was a herald of United States is $1,000,000,000. We are, est women in all Syr. ir cabinet council the St. Lawrence. He would cry out, and girdle. The turquoise has been more the kingdom of God on earth. A therefore the consumers of the United with a waiting maid over the declining "Are not the Thames and the Shannon universally adopted in recent years than prophet's business was to tell men States for exactly half of their domes- health of the mighty general. "I know just as well?" The fact was that haughty any other stone. The greatest number, about Christ's coming, and to do what tic produce. It may be assumed that something," says the little captive maid, Naamam needed to learn what every Eng- and some of the most beautiful, have of he could to hasten his coming. So the the United States would not lose the cus- "I know something," as she bounds to her lishman and every American needs to late years been found in our own cours y. greatest of the prophets was he who did tomer of half of its export without being bare feet. "In the land from which I was learn—that when God tells you to do a During the last three years $400,000 wo the the most to bring the kingdom of God; and willing to make some concessions in the stolen there is a certain prophet known by thing you must go and do it, whether you of American turquoises have been up 1, our Lord says that none was greater in this direction of a mutually advantageous union. The name of Elisha, who can cure almost understand the reason or not. Take the And the opal-that exquisite stone with the regard than John. He that is least in the It is hardly necessary to allude to the large anything, and I shouldn't wonder if he prescription, whether you like it or not, fairy light dancing over, its delicate are kingdom of God is greater than he, Simpamount of British capital invested in the could cure my master. Send for him right One thing is certain. Unless haughty face—just now is finding its reward, were ly because he is in the kingdom, and John United States, which would have every- away." "Oh, hush!" you say. "If the Naaman does as Elisha commands him he many years of prejudice. Indeed, so ar was only on its threshold; as a child on a thing to gain by a profitable union. The highest medical talent in all the land can-will die of his awful sickness. And unless has the old superstition regarding his mountian summit can see farther than a gradual shifting, which is believed by some not cure that leper, there is no need of your you do as Christ commands you you wil stone been removed that it has become, gaint on the plain. (5) There was not an sociates the most beautiful opal is to be 29,30. All thepeople and the publican (contrasted with the Pharisees and lawyers) justified God, being baptized. They obsyed John's message, repented, and were baptizis, thy frustrated the plans of God, of > 31. Whereunto then shall I liken. Jesus was a model for teachers in that he seldom

We wanted to make believe we were nothing suits you." We have heard our a little," she said to herself. One day an lidn't have any school globes in those John on one ground, and with me on an must know whether you are a strict other-"

. . FOR ALL SIZES OF BUILDINGS . .

Capacity from 10,000 to 80,00 Cubic Feet

WOOD FURNACE HEAVY GRATE, especially adapted for wood burning Heavy Steel Plate Fire Box Dome and Radiator, which heat quicker and are more durable

COAL FURNACE Large Combustion Chamber Long Fire Travel engiroling radiator Large Heating Surface Large Feed Door

Rotating Bar Dumping Grate

LARGE ASH PIT

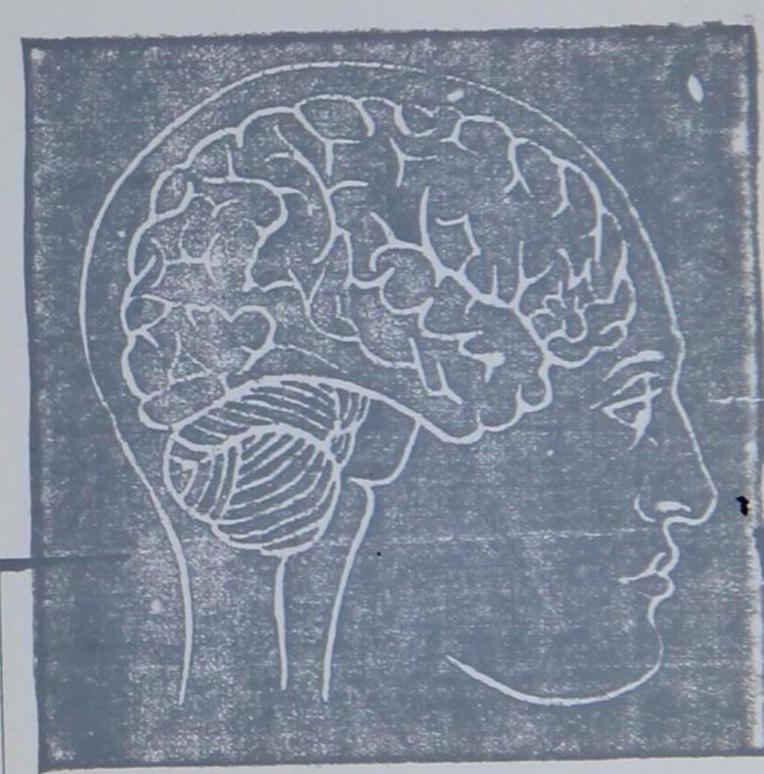

Sectional Fire Pot

DEEP ASH PIT

tion and Great Heating Power

OXFORD WOOD FURNACE Full Guaranteed Capacity: Send for ... DATALOQUE and TESTIMONIAL BOOK.

.... Manufactured by The CURNEY FOUNDRY COMPANY Ltd., TORONTO.

do world is that nerve centres located | the cause of the trouble.

of the body below the injured point, energy. way diseased it is impossible for it cure is certain.

its appearance. diseases is that they treat the organs incredulous.

The latest discovery in the scienti- | and not the nerve centres, which are in or near the base of the brain con- The wonderful cures wrought by trol all the organs of the body, and the Great South American Nervine when these nerve centres are Tonic are due alone to the fact that deranged the organs which they this remedy is based upon the foresupply with nerve fluid, or nerve going principle. It were by esteroid force, are also deranged. When it ing and strengthening the nerva is remembered that a serious injury centres, and thereby increasing the to the spinal cord will cause paralysis supply of nerve force or nervous because the nerve force is prevented This remedy has been found of by the injury from reaching the para- infinite value for the cure of Nervouslyzed portion, it will be understood ness, Nervous Prostration, Nervous how the derangement of the nerve Paroxysms, Sleeplessness, Forgetfulcentres will cause the derangement ness, Mental Despondency, Nervousof the various organs which they ness of Females, Hot Flashes, Sick supply with nerve force; that is, when | Headache, Heart Disease. The first a nerve centre is deranged or in any bottle will convince anyone that a to supply the same quantity of nerve | South American Nervine is withforce as when in a healthful condi- out would the greatest remedy ever tion; hence the organs which depend discovered for the cure of Indigestion, upon it for nerve force suffer, and are Dyspepsia, and all Chronic Stomach unable to properly perform their Troubles, because it acts through the work, and as a result disease makes nerves. It gives relief in one day, and absolutely effects a permanent At least two-thirds of our chronic cure in every instance. Do not diseases and ailments are due to the allow your prejudices, or the prejuimperfect action of the nerve centres dices of others, to keep you from at the base of the brain, and not from using this health-giving remedy. It a derangement primarily originating is based on the result of years of in the organ itself. The great mis- scientific research and study. A take of physicians in treating these single bottle will convince the most

ROWAN & CO.,

Sectarianism in Canada

Max O'Rell tells the following apropos The capital letter "Q" will be found at told a truth without telling what it was of the strictness of the sects in Can-32 Sitting in the market place. The ads: The keeper of a lodging-house, a only open part of au Eastern city lady with very decided Presbyterian where children can play. We have views, only opened her house to those piped, etc. The meaning of this is, whose orthodoxy was as unquestionable as her own. However, business flagged somewith us; now we want to make believe we | what, the house was half empty, and she | but at all event s it is better than none. are having a funeral, and you won't play pondered over many things. "Perhaps that either. You won't play anything, and business would mend if I relaxed my views old gentleman presents himself at the door, what you mean," replied the worthy man. " Well, for instance, do you believe that all children who die unbaptised will be eternally burnt ?" "Upon my word," says the new lodger, his memory perhaps alighting upon some unruly little imp of his acquaintance, "I should scarcely like to say all, but some will, no doubt." " I will let you the rooms," replied the good woman ; " some is scarcely to my liking, Consideration.

Magistrate (severely)-" Five witnesses testify that you tied a tin kettle to a poor dog's tail."

Bad Boy-" Please, sir, that was only to balance 'im so if he falled off anythink he wouldn't land on his head."