'Accused, it was diswell also, and the whole sale totalled closed, was absolutely without funds. his only revenue coming from his mother, owner of a farm, who paid him $100 for eight months' work.

Accused was alleged to have set fire to a hay stack, over a year old, on his mother's farm, north of Claremont, following a disagreement between him and his father a few minutes previous to -the discovery of the blaze.

The evidence disclosed strained domestic relations, existing for sever_ al years, between the boy and his father, accused openly admitting that he had four years ago made

A peculiar aspect of the case was that neither father nor mother in their evidence accused their son of NATIVE OF MARKHAM DIES the result of opinions expressed by the father with respect to his son after the fire.

On the morning of the fire, followof scaffolding in a barn, the accused declared his intention, as he had on many other occasions, of leaving year. home. He went to the house, got a gun, and left, walking in the direction of the haystack, although he stated that he got the gun to shoot a woodchuck. Discovering the fire in the stack, he attempted to put it out, but without success. He then, according to his story, left for Claremont, and did not return until two in the afternoon.

The only direct evidence given against accused was that sworn to by Provincial Constables Cookman of Whitby, and Mitchell of Oshawa, in which it was alleged that Elson, while being taken to Whitby in a car remarked that if he got off this time he would not do it again, and would be a good boy

Defense counsel in asking for dismissal reforred to the boy's lack of education, declaring that many farmers in order to keep their boys on the farm deliberately deprived them of education after they were 14 years of age. He contended that

The deceased was born in Scarboro Township and as a child of three years, with his parents moved to Uxbridge Township, farming near Goodwood, in 1871. He retired from farming twenty-five years ago and moved to town, being one of the most highly respected citizens. He belonged to the United Church, and was a valued member of the B.M.B. C. His associates of the class attended the funeral in a body.

Besides his wife he leaves one daughter Mrs. Fred Palmer of Uxbridge, a niece, Miss Jessie, at home, one brother Isaac Wagg of Goodwood and one sister Mrs. Stover of Saskatchwan to mourn his loss, and to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

The funeral took place from his late residence on Sunday, Nov. 6th. Interment at Goodwood cemetery.
