

CONDITIONS THAT CALL FOR A TONIC

Symptoms That the Blood is Thin Should Not Be Neglected.

Weak, lacking in strength, energy and ambition, nervous, sleepless, poor appetite, digestion disturbed—these are the symptoms of a great majority of people who have been benefited by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The great value of this medicine in cases of this kind is proved by the statement of Mrs. W. Hensher, Kingston, Ont., who says:—"Following a severe cold I was left in a run-down, nervous condition; I had pains in the back and limbs and could scarcely move about. I did not sleep well at night and was despondent and discouraged. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can truthfully say that after the use of six boxes, the change in my condition was nothing short of marvellous. The pains vanished, I slept well, had a good appetite, and in every way felt well and strong. I also gave the pills to my daughter, who was in an anaemic condition and feeling quite miserable, and in her case, too, they restored health. I hope my experience may help some other weak person."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. A little book, "Building Up the Blood," which contains many useful health hints, will be sent free on request.

Specialist Warns Against Cancer

Says if Disease Attacks Younger Generation Human Race Doomed

Dayton, Ohio.—If cancer should change its attack to the younger generation it would wipe out civilization within two years. That warning was issued recently by Dr. Gilbert Fitzpatrick, Chicago, president of the Union of Cancer and a specialist of international repute, at the joint meeting of the Southern Ohio, Ohio State and Miami Valley Homeopathy Medical societies.

Dr. Fitzpatrick asserted newspapers of the United States must be used effectively if there is to be an effective warfare against the spread of cancer. "All the medical deliberations confined to the four walls will be of no avail unless that knowledge is conveyed to the laymen," he said in describing the public press as "the great American university."

Dr. Fitzpatrick declared annual physical examinations are one of the best methods in determining pre-cancer conditions and consequently in checking the growth.

When Leghorns Bleed

We have had occasional losses in our Leghorn flocks from full grown hens bleeding to death at the comb. A small peck from another bird seems to start the flow of blood. Other members of the flock peck at the wound to obtain the blood and the bleeding continues until the bird dies from weakness and loss of blood.

A drug called adrenalin chloride can often be used to stop the flow of blood from the comb. The hen should be isolated when the bleeding is discovered so that other hens will not peck the wound. It is important to locate a bleeder at once and apply treatment. Many losses occur because the bleeding bird is not located until she is bled white and very weak.

Watch for the pale Leghorn that remains on the perch and seems very weak. Examine the comb carefully. Sometimes only a drop of blood will show at a time and this slow bleeding will continue for many days before the bird dies. Sometimes a bird will apparently bleed to death from the small injury at the base of a feather. Examine a bird that seems pale and shows a splash of blood on the side of the body or wing. A bird with that type of injury will surely die from weakness if the gradual loss of blood is not stopped.

An old woman who had called in the doctor to give her treatment for a cold was somewhat grumpy when she found that her own doctor had been unable to come, and had sent a young deputy. After questioning and examining the patient, the young doctor nodded wisely and said:—"Ab, I know what's the matter with you. You are suffering from nasal catarrh." The old woman looked disgustedly at the doctor. "Hoots, man," she said, "I sent for you to cure ma cold—no to christen it."

Tend to Your Own. Don't bother so much about somebody else. Just think of your own little work. If you only keep busy, you'll not have the time. To notice how other folks shirk. French Finance

Paris Figaro: (Care and thrift must not be abated, if a permanent improvement of French finances is to be effected). To prevent a relapse, which would be exceedingly grave, what must be done? Everybody knows the answer. We must have a continuity of policy which will allow the work which has been started to be brought to fruition. In theory this policy depends on the sovereign people, and it would seem that they had gone out of their senses, if they did not wish to make certain of their safety. But in practice the decision is much less a matter for universal suffrage than it is for the leaders, the committees, the different groups which dispose of a fraction of power, the caucuses and the electoral parties. Never has the paradox of democracies appeared greater than in times of crisis. For then all depends on the people; but on who do the people depend?

Schwab Tells How He Shied at Aviation

Admits He Refused to Finance Wright Brother in Early Days

Chicago.—Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, told a meeting of mechanical engineers here that more than 25 years ago he was asked to help finance the Wright brothers in their early efforts to develop a heavier-than-air flying machine and that he did not aid them. Two years later, Orville and Wilbur Wright made the first flights by man in such a machine and had invented the system of control used in all flying machines to-day.

Asked for Support. It was in 1901 that Charles R. Flint, merchant and banker, brought the Wright brothers to him seeking financial support for their flying experiments, Mr. Schwab related to the Chicago Chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, of which he is national president.

"I've been in a good many harum-scarum things in life but preserve me from flying," Mr. Schwab reported was his reply to Mr. Flint. Mr. Schwab became reminiscent as he recalled that next year will mark the fiftieth anniversary of his entrance into the steel business. Human engineering is the greatest profession of all, he said. The man who can make workers content and happy and personally interested in their work is contributing richly to life.

Source of Satisfaction. The average standard of manhood of workmen in America is as high as that of society, he said, and that is why he loves the working people of this country, he continued. As he looks back through the past half-century, he asks himself what are the real things that he has tolled to possess. They are not money, clothes, food nor other material possessions, for these do not bring real satisfaction, he said. The real satisfaction is in living a life that results in genuine friends and in going through life happy and laughing and with approval of one's fellow man.

"Happy is he to whom they say, 'Well done, good friend,'" Mr. Schwab declared. "Be a friend to everybody and try always to do good and at the same time live to be a man among men," he advised his fellow engineers. "I believe in building on a true foundation of honesty, integrity and loyalty. What happy people we should be to be citizens of this richly endowed Nation."

Reparations

Berlin Lokal-Anzeiger: (Parker Gilbert, allied reparations agent, has warned the German Government against carrying out the law to increase the pay of public officials.) One could not greatly reproach the reparations agent for he is doing no more than fulfilling his duty. It is his task in fact to see that German tribute is paid in full and that the treasure chests of Paris, London, Rome, Brussels and New York do not suffer any losses by reason of the fact that the Government of the Reich wish to make some small improvement in the lamentable conditions submitted to by German officials. But with this letter of Mr. Gilbert's the veil is torn aside with which the German statesmen who were in support of the plan habitually enveloped the Dawes scheme.

"Did the manager say he'd let you play a part?" "Yes; he said he'd rather have me play apart from his company than with it."

Will Rogers on French Tariff; He's Also Still for Coolidge

To the Editor of The New York Times:

Beverly Hills, Cal.—See where we are so? at France now for imitating us and putting on a tariff against our goods. Kinder puts us at a disadvantage on account of the size of France. If it was some South or Central American country, we could claim it was unlawful and make 'em take it off.

Haven't heard from Arthur yet. I doubt if he has seen it. I don't guess he slums much in his reading.

If the Republicans don't run Coolidge, history will repeat itself. You saw what happened to Pittsburgh when they thought they could win without Cuyler.

Yours, WILL ROGERS.

THE ONLY MEDICINE BABY HAS HAD

Is What Thousands of Mothers Say of Baby's Own Tablets

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. Experience teaches her that they are without an equal for relieving baby of any of the many minor ailments which afflict him at one time or another. The Tablets never fail to be of benefit—they cannot possibly do harm as they are guaranteed to be free from all injurious drugs.

Concerning Baby's Own Tablets Mrs. Russell Hill, Norwood, Ont., says:—"I shall always have a good word to say for Baby's Own Tablets. I have given them to our baby girl. In fact they are the only medicine she has ever had and I am proud to say that she took second prize at our baby show. She is eleven months old and weighs 22 pounds. No mother whose child is peevish or ailing will make a mistake in giving Baby's Own Tablets."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or direct by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Britain a Continental Power

Paris Temps: By her signature of the Locarno Rhine Pact Great Britain not only made the Rhine her frontier, but made herself a European Continental Power, for a Power which is forced to defend its security on the Rhine is not in a position to rest indifferent in the face of European complications that endanger the general peace. The necessity is incumbent upon Great Britain, just like other Continental Powers, to assume the responsibility of guaranteeing all the nations alike before any step can be taken towards a reduction of existing armaments.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

SICK ABED EIGHT MONTHS

After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Could Do All Her Work and Gained in Weight

Melfort, Saskatchewan.—"I had inward troubles, headaches and severe pains in my back and sides. I was so sick generally that I could not sit up and I was in bed most of the time for eight months. An aunt came to visit and help me as I was unable to attend to my baby and could not do my work. She told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two bottles I could get up and dress myself. I also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. When I first took the medicine I only weighed seventy-eight pounds. Now I weigh twice as much. If I get out of sorts or weary and can't sleep I always take another bottle of the Vegetable Compound. I find it wonderfully good for female troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. I will be only too glad to answer any letters I receive asking about it."—Mrs. WILLIAM RITCHIE, Box 480, Melfort, Saskatchewan.

ASPIRIN

The whole world knows Aspirin as an effective antidote for pain. But it's just as important to know that there is only one genuine Aspirin. The name Bayer is on every tablet, and on the box. If the name Bayer appears, it's genuine; and if it doesn't, it is not! Headaches are dispelled by Aspirin. So are colds, and the pain that goes with them; even neuralgia, neuritis, and rheumatism promptly relieved. Get Aspirin—at any drugstore—with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.
