SMITH, A. Dennis

Dennis Smith, in his eighty fifth year, died peacefully at home with his wife by his side on August 29, 2015.

Dennis was born in Sunderland, England on November 29, 1930, to his parents, James Blyth Smith and Emily Edith (Clegg) Smith. He moved to Canada with his wife Jean in 1953, and began a remarkable career in the Industrial Belting Industry. He was a trailblazer in the field, and was known to his colleagues for his endless work ethic and innovative ideas. His family will remember the extraordinary love and commitment that Jean and Dennis shared. He was a devoted father and "Poppa", and his strength and wisdom will remain with us.

Dennis is predeceased by his daughter, Julia Smith. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Jean (Thompson) Smith, along with his daughter, Kenda (Smith) Cranfield and husband Robert, his son, Jeffrey Smith and wife Francine, and his son David Smith and wife Sylvia, as well as seven grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

Cremation has already taken place and Dennis' family will gather to honour his life privately, as per his wishes. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in his name to The Kidney Foundation of Canada, The Cardiac Health Foundation of Canada, or The Canadian Lung Association.
