

ALL CANDIDATES CONFIRMED FOR ELECTION MEETING

Find out where your local federal candidates stand on the issues.

All four candidates – Paul Calandra (Conservative), Dr. Jane Philpott (Liberal), Gregory Hines (NDP) and Myles O'Brien (Green) – have confirmed their attendance at an all-candidates meeting. It takes place Oct. 5 from 7 to 9 p.m. at EastRidge Evangelical Missionary Church. The Tenth Line church's auditorium seats 400.

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce and York Region Media Group will co-host the meeting.

Election day is Oct. 19.

Conservative Paul Calandra and Liberal Jane Philpott are the frontrunners locally, experts and polls say.

Markham-Stouffville riding 'real toss-up'

From page 1.

Calandra's actions in the House of Commons, according to Aquanno.

"It's all about winning the election and not what's good for society," said Marc Menard, a professor of Canadian politics at Seneca College, York Region's community college.

Menard also agreed with Aquanno in that Calandra's actions in parliament may not resonate well with everyone.

But he also noted the new riding is "a real toss-up".

Calandra may also get swept up in the current mentality of "anybody but Conservative."

Part of that attitude can be attributed to the Conservatives being in power for nine years and people are getting tired of their government and their policies, according to Menard.
