BARG, Ada 1930 - 2016

Mrs. Ada Elizabeth Barg (nee Burkholder) of Red Deer, Alberta, passed away at Harmony Care Home, Red Deer on Monday, April 11, 2016 at the age of 85 years. Ada was born on June 20, 1930 at Markham, Ontario, the daughter of Amos and Fanny Burkholder. She moved out west; and taught school in Northern Alberta. After marrying her husband, Philip, she moved to British Columbia where they farmed at Chilliwack and also at Vanderhoof. After finally moving to Red Deer in 1999, Ada kept busy volunteering at the Golden Circle, Potter's Hands, the Red Deer Food Bank and sewing baby blankets for Ronald McDonald House. Ada will be lovingly remembered by her daughter, Katherine Barg and her favorite son-in-law, Jeff Pennington. She will also be sadly missed by her sisters-in-law, Edna Barg, Anna Barg, and Evelyn Burkholder; as well as several nieces and nephews. Ada was predeceased by her beloved husband, Philip in 1997. A Celebration of Ada's Life was held at Parkland Funeral Home and Crematorium, 6287 - 67 A Street (Taylor Drive), Red Deer, Alberta on Friday, April 15, 2016 at 1:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, Memorial Donations in Ada's honor may be made directly to the Potter's Hands Ministry at PO Box 27093, Red Deer, Alberta, T4N 6X8 or to the Red Deer Food Bank Society at 7429 - 49 Avenue, Red Deer, Alberta, T4P 1N2. Condolences may be sent or viewed at www.parklandfuneralhome.com. Arrangements in care of Parkland Funeral Home and Crematorium, 6287 - 67 A Street (Taylor Drive), Red Deer. 403.340.4040 or 1.800.481.7421.

Interested in Getting Involved in Protecting Our Drinking Water?

Invitation to Apply for Membership on the South Georgian Bay Lake Simcoe (SGBLS) Source Protection Committee

Under Ontario Regulation 288/07, Clean Water Act, 2006

The South Georgian Bay Lake Simcoe (SGBLS) Source Protection Region, in accordance with the provisions of Ontario Regulation 288/07, is currently seeking two economic sector members and one public sector member to serve on the SGBLS Source Protection Committee.

Originally established in 2007, the committee has successfully developed and launched the Source Protection Plan. The plan provides policies to mitigate potential threats to the source of municipal drinking water. The Ministry of the Environment and Climate Change approved the Source Protection Plan on January 26th, 2015 at which stage the function of the committee transitioned primarily to evaluating the implementation of the Source Protection Plan policies and conducting periodic updates to ensure the plan is leading to the desired protection of sources of municipal drinking water.

Summary of Committee Member Obligations and Requirements

- Make a five year commitment to participate;
- Attend committee meetings (two to three meetings per year);
- Attend training and orientation sessions as required;
- Must reside, own property, rent property, be employed in or operate a business within the boundaries of the SGBLS Source Protection Region;
- Cannot be a current Source Protection Authority Board or staff member;
- Respect confidential information and abide by the process in place to safeguard confidential information;
- Comply with the committee's code of conduct;
- Act as liaison by bringing forward common concerns from knowledge and experience of respective sector to the committee;
- Provide input and make decisions at the committee table;
- Understand source protection science concepts and technical reports; Review reports/documents as required.

More information about the Source Protection program and obligations of committee members is available on our website at: <http://www.ourwatershed.ca>

How to Apply for Appointment to the Committee

Download an application from our website: www.ourwatershed.ca. Applications and supporting materials can be submitted to the address below.

Deadline is May 31, 2016

A selection committee will review all applications and make recommendations to the lead Source Protection Authority to endorse the preferred applicants. The selection committee may require applicants to participate in an interview.
