

Citizen, sports award nominations open

Whitchurch-Stouffville, help us honour this year's citizen of the year and sports person of the year.

We're seeking nominations for this year's awards program.

Nominations shouldn't be complicated. Think of them as a one-page resume of community involvement for your nominee.

Supplement the list with letters of recommendation, telling the judges what your nominee's volunteer work has meant to Whitchurch-Stouffville.

We're looking for the selfless. People who do good deeds, but not to benefit their family or business. They do it for the greater good.

Please email your nomination packages to jmason@yrmg.com (type 'Stouffville Awards' in the subject line) or drop them at our office at 6290 Main St. in beautiful downtown Stouffville.

Any questions? Call me at 905-640-2612 ext. 23.)

Deadline is June 10.

We'll fete the recipients during the 32nd annual Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Festival.
