Stouffville Secondary's Alexa Feasby pushes off Hannah Sedgewick of Denison during the YRAA rugby final in Stouffville Tuesday. The Grade 9 student scored four tries to lead unbeaten Stouffville to a 45-0 win and its third straight York Region title. See more on page 26.

'Smart ___': Councillor not apologizing

BY ALI RAZA

It's not just a House of Commons thing. There was a "fuddle duddle" moment during last week's Whitchurch-Stouffville council meeting, according to some in attendance. A town spokesperson said last Thursday that Councillor Maurice Smith "exchanged inappropriate council language" with Mayor Justin Altmann during a vote at the Tuesday meeting. Smith and Altmann sit next to each other in the council chambers. The incident was first reported to the town and The Sun-Tribune Thursday by a resident on social media, then confirmed to the media by the municipality. Altmann was in the process of confirming a motion to offer Evergreen Hospice's Taste of Stouffville event a grant of $2,601 to cover fees for its event in Memorial Park this summer when Smith uttered something under his breath. Though some in the audience — including a Sun-Tribune reporter and town communications co-ordinator Glenn Jackson — couldn't
