13 charged with impaired on weekend

York Regional Police says it's once again disappointed by the results of a weekend RIDE campaign.

This past weekend, 13 drivers were arrested from Friday through to Sunday and charged with alcohol and drug-related criminal driving offences. Of the 13 arrests, four were a result of collisions. Officers conducting RIDE spot checks and general patrol resulted in another five impaired drivers and four of the arrests were as a result of concerned citizens calling 911 to report possible impaired drivers.
