

Spirit loses leading scorer to U of T

Stouffville's loss is Toronto's gain.

Nathan Hudgin will be taking the next step in his budding hockey career to the University of Toronto this fall.

The 18-year-old former Stouffville Spirit forward led the club in scoring this past season and was tied in 17th place overall in the Ontario Junior Hockey League with 29 goals and 31 assists.

The Scarborough resident has two years of junior eligibility remaining.

A 13th round pick of the Kitchener Rangers in the 2013 Ontario Hockey League priority selection, Hudgin joined the Spirit in the 2014-15 campaign and had 21 points in 41 regular season games and helped them qualify for the postseason.

Hudgin's strong finish to the 2015-16 season saw him named runner-up for the OJHL Gongshow Gear North-East Conference Player-of-the-Month in February.
