

'In light of Orlando', timely show at 19 on the Park tonight

It's a performance of a lifetime, literally. The Lebovic Centre for Arts & Entertainment -19 on the Park presents Confessions of a Fairy's Daughter, a one-woman show performed by writer and performer Alison Wearing, based on her bestselling memoir about growing up in the 1980s with a gay father, tonight.
 "In light of recent shootings in Orlando, we feel this presentation couldn't come at a better time," said the theatre's programming co-ordinator Ashley Chappell.

 With the use of music, imagery and a little comedy, Wearing takes audiences through an exploration of her life from her carefree childhood to the moment she learned the truth about her family at the age of 12. Her monologue continues in a portrayal of her own journey through confusion, disbelief and celebration.
 Tickets are $18. For tickets, visit www.19onthepark.com or call 905-640-2322.
