WANTED
Self-starters interested in a career as an automotive sales professional.

These positions will appeal to recent university or college graduates (male or female) who are looking for much more than they have found in their first job experience. Ideal candidates could also be moms re-entering the workforce, or energetic women or men who have been victims of corporate downsizing.

Most of our existing sales team fit into one of the above categories and had no previous automotive sales experience. Today they are among the most productive and most professional in the GTA.

Our managers are committed to supporting and training our staff on an ongoing basis. Your fellow sales professionals will also take a keen interest in helping you achieve your potential.

These positions are available as a result of internal promotions and business growth. If you are a motivated individual interested in a stimulating professional career with real upside potential, fax/email your resume immediately to:
