Yorkregion.com – the York Region Media Group's website – recently received photos of a child holding the moon, someone holding the Big Nickel in Sudbury between their fingers and more apparently strange phenomena.

Of course, nothing strange really happened, the images were just entries in our forced perspective photo contest.

Congratulations to Markham's Amanda

Yim for winning the readers' choice award with her photo of the Big Nickel, which she dubbed, 'Nickel eh?'. Her entry received the most votes from readers.

Thanks to everyone who entered.

When no longer needed, pressurized gas containers become household hazardous waste.

Household hazardous waste does not belong in the garbage, in your blue box or down the drain. It should be brought to a depot location where it will be disposed of safely.
