

CAO off 3 months

Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville CAO Marc Pourvahidi remains on administrative leave.

Pourvahidi first went on sick leave in April and in May the town said he was on administrative leave bringing his total leave of absence as CAO to almost three months.

The town's original press release stated the duration of his leave as "unknown" and that it was due to a "personnel matter".

Town spokesperson Glenn Jackson confirmed on Friday that there was no update to Pourvahidi's absence.

Leisure services director Rob Raycroft is acting CAO and will remain as interim CAO until further notice.

Raycroft replaced Fire Chief Rob McKenzie for the position on May 10 after McKenzie held it for two weeks.

Pourvahidi, the former director of finance at the town, was hired as town CAO on May 5, 2015, after serving as acting CAO since March 2015 when former CAO Andrew McNeely was put on administrative leave.
