Hip concert party at the Lion 80 per cent sold out

The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville is not hosting a viewing of The Tragically Hip's last concert Aug. 20, but the Lion of Stouffville has stepped in to fill the void.

Under new management with Maria and Doug Crosse starting Aug. 18, the Lion at 5917 Main St. will host a viewing party for the Kingston concert. The pub's already sold 80 per cent of its 300 seats.

The evening will also include a Flare bartender and Jose Cuervo Margarita promotions. The concert will be projected on a large screen with a sound system on the patio.

"We looked at that date as a great way to meet the people of Stouffville and give those who had not been to the Lion in a while a chance to try it out under a fresh approach," Doug said.

The Lion plans to feature karaoke, sports, trivia nights, rock and roll bingo, and paint and cocktail evenings in the coming days.

Town Councillor Iain Lovatt announced on his Facebook page in late July that the town would not live stream CBC's broadcast of The Tragically Hip concert in Stouffville as the cost was too much for the town to bear and local businesses were not permitted to subsidize costs under CBC's terms of contract.
